Dialogues Between Saints And Mystics:

Rethinking the Dialogue between the Verbal and the Visual Ingrid Falque, Agnès Guiderdoni, 2022-11-14

Intermediality figurability iconotext visual exegesis these are some of the many new ways in which the relationship between text and image has been explored in recent decades. Scholars have benefited from theoretical work in the fields of anthropology, psychoanalysis, and semiotics alongside more traditional fields such as literature, art history, and cultural history. Focusing on religious texts and images between 1400 and 1700, the essays gathered in this volume contribute to these developments by grounding their case studies in methodology. In considering various relations between the visual and the verbal, the editors have adopted the broadest position possible, emphasizing the phenomenological point of view from which the objects under discussion are examined. Contributors to this volume: Ralph Dekoninck, Anna Dlabová, Grigory Ems, Ingrid Falque, Agnès Guiderdoni, Walter S. Melion, Kees Schepers, Paul J. Smith, and Elliott D. Wise. Guidelines for Dialogue Between Christians and Muslims Maurice Borrmans, 1990. Provides a basic knowledge of Islamic beliefs and practices so that Christians may be better prepared to engage in dialogue with Muslims.

The Dialogue of Saint Catherine of Siena James Butler, John Milner, 2016-09-03. So you see that satisfaction is made through the desire of the soul united to Me who am the Infinite Good in greater or less degree according to the measure of love obtained by the desire and prayer of the recipient. Wherefore with that very same measure with which a man measures to Me, do he receive in himself the measure of My goodness. Labor therefore to increase the fire of your desire and let not a moment pass without crying to Me with humble voice or without continual prayers before Me for your neighbors. I say this to you and to the father of your soul whom I have given you on earth. Bear yourselves with manful courage and make yourselves dead to all your own sensuality. Excerpt p. 7. Saint Catherine of Siena, a mystic, dictated the Dialogue while in ecstasy. The work is a dialogue between God the Father and the Saint. It began in 1377 and finished by 1378. She was a tertiary of the Dominican Order and was declared a Doctor of the Church in 1970 by Pope Paul VI and is one of the six patron saints of Europe. Dialogues with Saints and Mystics Dorothy C. Buck, 2002.

Dialogue on Partition Syrrina Ahsan Ali Haque, 2021-03-04. Dialogue on Partition explores dialogic possibilities in Indo-Pak English novels on the partition of India in 1947 and expounds upon the potential of art and literature to offer dialogue. The book locates the inherent individualities of voices of narrators, characters, and writers of these novels as promulgators of dialogue in the face of the contentious event of partition and post-partition conflict. The book shows how the authors of these novels objectify their religious stance and present a regional affiliation attributed to a shared existence in the subcontinent while locating and dissecting shared symbols, regional fraternity, Sufi and mystic eclecticism, and diversity of heteroglot and polyphonic voices in the chronotopical space and time of partition. The objective of the book is to critique the role of Indo-Pak novels in propagating dialogue, thereby proposing ways of reducing fissures implanted in the psycho-social terrain of the inhabitants of the region by offering junctures within the literary domain. Thus, the book expounds upon how these novels may be perceived as tools of integration between sects races and nations at large It can aid in opening borders to shared art and literature which inherently engenders response and dialogue leading to possibilities of coalition and integration
