1st century String Quartets:

The Cambridge Companion to the String Quartet Robin Stowell, 2003-11-13 This Companion offers a concise and authoritative survey of the string quartet by eleven chamber music specialists Its fifteen carefully structured chapters provide coverage of a stimulating range of perspectives previously unavailable in one volume It focuses on four main areas the social and musical background to the quartet s development the most celebrated ensembles string quartet playing including aspects of contemporary and historical performing practice and the mainstream repertory including significant mixed ensemble compositions involving string quartet Various musical and pictorial illustrations and informative appendixes including a chronology of the most significant works complete this indispensable guide Written for all string quartet enthusiasts this Companion will enrich readers understanding of the history of the genre the context and significance of quartets as cultural phenomena and the musical technical and interpretative problems of chamber music performance It will also enhance their experience of listening to quartets in performance and on recordings

Carson McCullers in the Twenty-First Century Alison Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Caf 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others

The Twentieth-century String Quartet Douglas Jarman, 2002 The Chamber Musician in the Twenty-First Century Mine Doğan-tan-Dack, 2022-07-07 In recent research there has been growing emphasis on the collaborative social and collective nature of musical behaviour and practices Among the emerging hypotheses in this connection are the idea that listening to music is always listening together and being with the other that music making is a matter of intercorporeality mutuality and emphatic attunement and that creative agency in musical practices is fundamentally a distributed phenomenon Chamber music provides an ideal context for the testing and actualisation of these notions This edition on chamber music and the chamber musician aims to explore the psychological social cultural historical and artistic issues in the practice of classical chamber music in the twenty first century Contributions were invited on the above aspects and issues involved in being a contemporary classical chamber musician Authors were encouraged to contextualise their research by referencing recent literature on collaborative musicking and among the topics they may choose to address are the cultural and musical demands chamber musicians face and the implications of these demands for their artistic practice the ways the twenty first century chamber musicians engage with historical practices the newly emerging musical identities and artistic roles available to them and expressivity in current chamber music practices The Smith Alumnae Quarterly ,1924 The Periodical ,1927
