2000 Years And Beyond Faith Identity And The Common Era:

2000 Years and Beyond ,2004   2000 Years and Beyond David Archard,Trevor A. Hart,Nigel Rapport,Paul Gifford,2003-09-02 2000 Years and Beyond brings together some of the most eminent thinkers of our time specialists in philosophy theology anthropology and cultural theory In a horizon scanning work they look backwards and forwards to explore what links us to the matrix of the Judaeo Christian tradition from which Western cultural identity has evolved Their plural reflections raise searching questions about how we move from past to future and about who we are What do the catastrophes of the twentieth century signify for hopes of progress Can post Enlightment humanism and its notion of human nature survive without faith If the numinous magic global capitalism is our own giant shadow cast abroad does that shadow offer hope enough of a communal future Has the modern secularized West now outgrown its originating faith matrix Often controversial and sometimes visionary these seven new essays ask how do we tell and rewrite the story of the Common Era Introduced by Paul Gifford and discussed in a lively dialogic conclusion they add their distinctive voices to a debate of profound and urgent topicality   The Oxford Handbook of the Anthropology of Religion Joel Robbins,Simon Coleman,2026-02-19 Anthropologists of religion study themes central to the understanding of humanity such as the power of ritual the authority of language and the exemplary character of myth This Handbook brings together leading specialists to explain the historical and intellectual background to how anthropologists approach religion and to show why its study remains a dynamic means of reflecting on contemporary life around the globe Each chapter combines overviews of a given topic with original observations and the Handbook is structured for ease of teaching Five sections guide the reader on different routes through the field helping to provoke further questions on historical and intellectual approaches Indigenous religions World religions enduring themes and emergent themes The aim is to help students and researchers recognize how and why the field has been organized in certain ways but also to make them feel confident enough to challenge its assumptions and to consider directions it might go in the future This Handbook provides an excellent introduction to some of the most important elements of anthropology including the discipline s emphases on comparison embodied experience and scepticism toward taken for granted categories It also shows how religious practices remain entangled with some of the pressing themes and questions of our time including how we perceive and treat our environment ways in which we deal with religious and cultural differences and the religious dimensions of virtual and mediated means of communication

Ricoeur's Hermeneutics of Religion Brian Gregor,2018-11-29 Religion was a constant theme throughout Paul Ricoeur s long career and yet he never wrote a full length treatment of the topic In this important new book Brian Gregor draws on the full scope of Ricoeur s writings to lay out the essential features of his philosophical interpretation of religion from his earliest to his last work Ricoeur s central claim is that religion aims at the regeneration of human capability in his words the rebirth of the capable self This book provides a rich thematic account of Ricoeur s hermeneutics of religion showing how the theme of capability informs his changing interpretations of religion from his early work on French reflexive philosophy and the philosophy of the will to his late work on forgiveness mourning and living up to death Gregor exhibits Ricoeur s original contribution to philosophical reflection on such themes as evil suffering and violence as well as imagination embodiment and spiritual exercise He also presents a critical reconsideration of Ricoeur s separation of philosophy from theology and his philosophical interpretation of Christian theological ideas of revelation divine transcendence and personhood atonement and eschatology Additionally Gregor provides an expansive look at Ricoeur s interlocutors including Marcel Jaspers Kant Hegel Levinas and Girard Theologically inclined readers will be particularly interested in the book s treatment of Karl Barth and the Protestant theology of the Word which was a vital influence on Ricoeur The result is a study of Ricoeur that is both sympathetic and critical provocative and original inviting the reader into a deeper engagement with Ricoeur s philosophical interpretation of religion Explorations in Twentieth-century Theology and Philosophy Ann Loades,2023-04-11 Ann Loades has been instrumental in bringing forward for the attention of readers in later generations voices from the past notably highlighting the work of pioneering women such as Evelyn Underhill and Dorothy L Sayers as well as advancing the study of better known Anglican forebears C S Lewis and Austin Farrer always with her own distinctive concerns A key interpreter of the Anglican tradition and with a keen eye to ensure the full recognition of women these studies by Ann Loades are essential reading in Anglican feminist and twentieth century theology Secular Faith Vincent William Lloyd,Elliot A. Ratzman,2011-01-01 Is faith a necessary virtue in the contemporary world May it be or must it be detached from religious commitment What do genealogies of the secular tell us about faith Does religion need secular faith Secular Faith brings together leading and emerging scholars to reflect on the apparent paradox of secular faith Ranging over anthropology religious studies political science history and literature from Muslims in China to Pentecostals in South Africa to a prison chapel in Texas this collection of essays is as engaging and accessible as it is penetrating and rigorous Communism was once labeled the god that failed Like Christianity Communism involves faith in a superhuman endeavor conversion myth discipline and salvation and from the perspective of secular liberalism both are unjustified and false In recent years scholars have begun to investigate whether secularism is itself based on faith in a god that failed or is failing Nevertheless many still embrace such a faith finding in the spirit of democracy an ethos of eternal renewal Secular Faith enters and broadens this conversation interrogating secular faith in a global context tapping new theoretical resources and grappling provocatively with the tragedies and opportunities of today s profane pantheon of beliefs The Identity of Israel's God in Christian Scripture Don Collett,Mark Elliott,Mark Gignilliat,Ephraim Radner,2021-01-29 A broad sweeping volume that breaches the walls separating biblical and theological disciplines Biblical scholars and theologians engage an important question Who is Israel s God for Christian readers of the Old Testament For Christians Scripture is the Old and New Testament bound together in a single legacy Contributors approach the question from multiple disciplinary vantage points Essays on both

Testaments focus on figural exegesis critical exegesis and the value of diachronic understandings of the Old Testament s compositional history for the sake of a richer synchronic reading This collection is offered in celebration of the life and work of Christopher R Seitz His rich and wide ranging scholarly efforts have provided scholars and students alike a treasure trove of resources related to this critical question   Possession, Power and the New Age Mr Matthew Wood,2013-05-28 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions   Possession, Power and the New Age Matthew Wood,2007-01-01 This book provides a new sociological account of contemporary religious phenomena such as channelling holistic healing meditation and divination which are usually classed as part of a New Age Movement Drawing on his extensive ethnography carried out in the UK alongside comparative studies in America and Europe Matthew Wood criticises the view that such phenomena represent spirituality in which self authority is paramount Instead he emphasises the role of social authority and the centrality of spirit possession linking these to participants class positions and experiences of secularisation Informed by sociological and anthropological approaches to social power and practice especially the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault Wood s study explores what he calls the nonformative regions of the religious field and charts similarities and differences with pagan spiritualist and Theosophical traditions   The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute ,2004 Articles on all aspects of anthropology   Redefining Christian Britain Jane Garnett,2007 Addresses the state of religion in the UK from post WWII to the new millennium with a selection of case studies from experts in the fields of history sociology and religious studies This book is organised around the themes of authenticity generation and virtue It looks at the impact of Christianity over a range of areas of national life   Annual Review of Anthropology ,1972 Annual compilation of critical articles from all areas of the discipline of anthropology   The Study of Africa: Disciplinary and Interdisciplinary encounters Paul Tiyambe Zeleza,2006 This is the first of a two volume work which takes stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first on the academic disciplines and African Studies the second on interdisciplinary studies   Journal of Religion in Africa ,1967   Encyclopedia of Religion ,2005   Comparative Perspectives on Shari'ah in Nigeria Philip Ostien,Jamila M. Nasir,Franz Kogelmann,2005 A timely publication when the need for greater understanding between

Islamic and Western cultures is sharper than ever the papers in this book are the result of an international conference entitled the Shari ah debate and the shaping of Muslim and Christian identities in Northern Nigeria The conference was convened by the University of Jos in northern Nigeria in the wake of the religious civil strife in the area in 2001 and 2002 The conference which brought together scholars from Nigeria and overseas considered recent developments in law and religion and shari ah from local and global perspectives The publication is intended to serve as an example of constructive dialogue in an academic setting between Muslims Christians and those of neither religion and as a permanent contribution to the literature on law and religion in Nigeria   The Tablet ,2002 The international Catholic weekly   Words and the Word David G. Firth,Jamie A. Grant,2008 Explorations in biblical interpretation and literary theory   American Book Publishing Record ,2003   Annual Review of Anthropology William H. Durham,2004-10
