Committee on Banking, Currency, and Housing, 1977 Watching the Wind Susan Collin Marks, 2000 A compelling inspiring account of peacemaking in action Watching the Wind takes us to the front lines of South Africa s struggle to manage the tempestuous transition from apartheid to democracy When Mandela de Klerk and other political leaders launched the 1991 National Peace Accord in a far reaching effort to staunch political bloodshed and promote consultation and cooperation between bitter adversaries Susan Collin Marks was one of thousands of South Africans who committed themselves to making the peace process work where it mattered most at the local level Over the next three years Marks and other leaders of the conflict resolution movement adopted and adapted a vast array of tools and techniques they mediated facilitated and counseled they created forums for open discussion and trained community leaders they fostered community policing and they anticipated crises and stood between demonstrators and security forces And as Marks explains something extraordinary happened The international community had expected a bloodbath but what it saw instead was a near miraculous process of negotiation and accommodation With passion and eloquence the author captures the drama the personalities and the heroism of this grassroots peace process Illinois Education ,1948 The Massachusetts Teacher ,1947
