The principal thematic significance of Odysseus's identifying himself to Polyphemus as Nobody Ans- odysseus goes to troy a decent man but becomes corrupted by war, so he loses the rights to his own name because he's a changed man. he has to regain the rights to his name through his journey home and since he meets polyphemus in the beginning, he hasn't yet done this. Also, his family and friends at home in Ithaca all believe that he is dead and so to them he's also Nobody

T/F: When Odysseus first encounters the undisguised Athena, she tells him that she could never desert him permanently because she finds him sexually attractive Ans- F: She does tell Odysseus that she could never desert him permanently but it's not due to sexual attraction (she's not attracted to any male, mortal or not). She instead says it's because she sees in him certain things about herself; they're both quick-witted and cagey.
