An Ethics of Becoming Sonjeong Cho, 2014-02-04 In attempting to conceptualize feminine subjectivity beyond the familiar paradigm of dualism and within the parameters of ethics this study examines the political and intellectual identity of contemporary poststructuralist feminism and its profound resonance with the nineteenth century British female Bildungsroman Rooted in fundamental questions about the nexus between feminist theory and feminist literature genre and gender subjectivity and ethics sexuality and textuality and mimesis and politics this book aims specifically to configure feminine subjectivity in the horizon of becoming always incomplete non identarian performative unknowable and thus paradoxically unbecoming as it disseminates in a modality of alterity in novels by Jane Austen Charlotte Bront and George Eliot The close reading of major novels by these women writers illuminates the artistic density and ethical depth of their writing by demonstrating that these women writers rewrite the genealogy of subjectivity and invent their own Bildungsroman as a rich narrative vehicle for the feminine

Feminisms Redux Diane Price Herndl, 2009

Dancing Women Sally Banes, 2013-11-05 Dancing Women Female Bodies Onstage is a spectacular and timely contribution to dance history recasting canonical dance since the early nineteenth century in terms of a feminist perspective Setting the creation of specific dances in socio political and cultural contexts Sally Banes shows that choreographers have created representations of women that are shaped by and that in part shape society s continuing debates about sexuality and female identity Broad in its scope and compelling in its argument Dancing Women provides a series of re readings of the canon from Romantic and Russian Imperial ballet to contemporary ballet and modern dance investigates the gaps between plot and performance that create sexual and gendered meanings examines how women s agency is created in dance through aspects of choreographic structure and style analyzes a range of women s images including brides mistresses mothers sisters witches wraiths enchanted princesses peasants revolutionaries cowgirls scientists and athletes as well as the creation of various women s communities on the dance stage suggests approaches to issues of gender in postmodern dance Using an interpretive strategy

Having a Good Cry Robyn R. Warhol,2003 Robyn R Warhol s goal is to investigate the effects of readers emotional responses to formulaic fiction of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries on gendered subjectivity She argues that modern literary and cultural studies have ignored nonsexual affectivity in their inquiries The book elaborates on Warhol s theory of affect and then focuses on sentimental stories marriage plots serialized novels and soap operas as distinct genres producing specific feelings among fans Popular narrative forms use formulas to bring up familiar patterns of feelings in the audiences who love them This book looks at the patterns of feelings that some nineteenth and twentieth century popular genres evoke and asks how those patterns are related to gender Soap operas and sentimentalism are generally derided as effeminate forms because their emotional range is seen as hyperfeminine Having a Good Cry presents a celebration of effeminate feelings and works toward promoting more flexible less pejorative concepts of gender Using a psychophysiological rather than a psychoanalytic approach to reading and emotion Warhol seeks to make readers more conscious of what is happening to the gendered body when we read
