For unbeknownst to Maeve at the time he is none other than General Gaius Suetonius Paulinus the newly appointed Roman Governor of Britain. Quart contends that women are creating a film language and film sensibility that are unique strong and until now unexplored. Her discussion centers on the ties between women directors rather than on a survey of women who direct films. Beginning with the antecedents to today's burgeoning number of women directors the study progresses to American women directors. Subsequent chapters focus on women directors in Western Europe and Eastern Europe with some attention as well to Asia and Latin America.
