Body Rags Inscribed:

The Shadow King Jo Marchant, 2013-06-04 More than 3 000 years ago King Tutankhamun's desiccated body was lovingly wrapped and sent into the future as an immortal god After resting undisturbed for more than three millennia King Tut's mummy was suddenly awakened in 1922 Archaeologist Howard Carter had discovered the boy king's tomb and the soon to be famous mummy's story even more dramatic than King Tut's life began The mummy's afterlife is a modern story not an ancient one Award winning science writer Jo Marchant traces the mummy's story from its first brutal autopsy in 1925 to the most recent arguments over its DNA From the glamorous treasure hunts of the 1920s to today's high tech scans in volatile modern Egypt Marchant introduces us to the brilliant and sometimes flawed people who have devoted their lives to revealing the mummy's secrets unravels the truth behind the hyped up TV documentaries and explains what science can and can't tell us about King Tutankhamun

Our Navy, 1932 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 The Art of Paper Caroline Fowler, 2019-11-05 The untold story of how paper revolutionized art making during the Renaissance exploring how it shaped broader concepts of authorship memory and the transmission of ideas over the course of three centuries In the late medieval and Renaissance period paper transformed society not only through its role in the invention of print but also in the way it influenced artistic production The Art of Paper tells the history of this medium in the context of the artist's workshop from the thirteenth century when it was imported to Europe from Africa to the sixteenth century when European paper was exported to the colonies of New Spain In this pathbreaking work Caroline Fowler approaches the topic culturally rather than technically deftly exploring the way paper shaped concepts of authorship preservation and the transmission of ideas during this period This book both tells a transcultural history of paper from the Cairo Genizah to the Mesoamerican manuscript and examines how paper became Europeanized through the various mechanisms of the watermark colonization and the philosophy of John Locke Ultimately Fowler demonstrates how paper as refuse and rags transformed into white surface informed the works for which it was used as well as artists thinking more broadly across the early modern world

Worlds Woven Together Vidyan Ravinthiran, 2022-07-29 Writing about poetry follows models provided either by academic scholarship or literary journalism each with its pitfalls The former distances the reader from the poem and effaces the critic's personality In literary journalism the critic is front and center but the discussion is introductory and prioritizes value judgments In either case entrenched practices and patterns of privilege limit one's perspective The situation worsens when it comes to minoritized poets and poets from the Global South where the focus is on restrictive notions of identity the stylistic innovations of literary works get ousted by prefabricated historical narratives In Worlds Woven Together the critic poet and scholar Vidyan Ravinthiran searches for alternatives pursuing close imaginative readings of a variety of writers His essays are open ended attentive and curious unabashedly passionate and subjective yet keenly analytical and investigative Discussing neglected authors and those well known in the West Ravinthiran sees politics as inseparable from literary form and is fascinated by the relation of the creative consciousness to the violences of history The book features essays on writers including Mir Taqi Mir Ana Blandiana A K Ramanujan Marianne Moore Eunice de Souza Czeslaw Milosz Ted Hughes Rae Armantrout Arvind Krishna Mehrotra Galway Kinnell Dawn Lundy Martin and Vahni Capildeo Revealing serendipitous connections between poems and cultures between lines of verse and the lives we lead Worlds Woven Together is for all readers fascinated by the mechanics and politics of poetry

Memories and Postmemories of the Partition of India Anjali Roy, 2019-07-12 This book examines the afterlife of Partition as imprinted on the memories and postmemories of Hindu and Sikh survivors from West Punjab to foreground the intersection between history memory and narrative It shows how survivors script their life stories to reinscribe tragic tales of violence and abjection into triumphalist sagas of fortitude resilience industry enterprise and success At the same time it reveals the silences stutters and stammers that interrupt survivors narrations to bring attention to the untold stories repressed in their consensual narratives By drawing upon current research in history memory narrative violence trauma affect home nation borders refugees and citizenship the book analyzes the traumatizing effects of both the tangible and intangible violence of Partition by tracing the survivors journey from refugees to citizens as they struggle to make new homes and lives in an unhomely land Moreover arguing that the event of Partition radically transformed the notions of home belonging self and community it shows that individuals affected by Partition produce a new ethics and aesthetic of displacement and embody new ways of being in the world An important contribution to the field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to researchers on South Asian history memory partition and postcolonial studies
