The Patient Multiple Jonathan Tae, 2017-01-01 In the Himalayan Kingdom of Bhutan medical patients engage a variety of healing practices to seek cures for their ailments Patients use the expanding biomedical network and a growing number of traditional healthcare units while also seeking alternative practices such as shamanism and other religious healing or even more provocative practices The Patient Multiple delves into this healthcare complexity in the context of patients daily lives and decision making processes showing how these unique mountain cultures are finding new paths to good health among a changing and multifaceted medical topography

Transportation Systems Analysis and Assessment Stefano De Luca, Roberta Di Pace, Boban Djordjevic, 2020-01-22 The transportation system is the backbone of any social and economic system and is also a very complex system in which users transport means technologies services and infrastructures have to cooperate with each other to achieve common and unique goals The aim of this book is to present a general overview on some of the main challenges that transportation planners and decision makers are faced with The book addresses different topics that range from user s behavior to travel demand simulation from supply chain to the railway infrastructure capacity from traffic safety issues to Life Cycle Assessment and to strategies to make the transportation system more sustainable

Woman Zion, Out of Hand Cindy Dawson, 2025-10-21 In this groundbreaking work Cindy Dawson maps and investigates Woman Zion through texts and time as a premiere example of a body s agency The personification of the city of Jerusalem in biblical and Early Jewish texts Woman Zion appears in 30 texts over 800 years during which time her body undergoes remarkable change This study provides a new way to track a tradition without succumbing to the limitations of form criticism and by definition its tie to forms that face eventual extinction Here Dawson reformulates a long time interest of biblical studies to show how Woman Zion s body becomes the new form

The Depoliticisation of Greece's Public Revenue Administration Dionyssi Dimitrakopoulos, Argyris Passas, 2019-09-25 This book analyses the reform of Greece s public revenue administration promoted by its international lenders under the successive bailout agreements put in place since 2010 In particular it shows how an integral part of the finance ministry was converted into an independent agency operating largely outside the direct control of the finance minister The authors focus on the implementation of this major reform and demonstrate the impact of domestic decisions on the increasing specificity of the international lenders demands and the concomitant lack of confidence in the Greek political lite s commitment to the reform package This book helps readers understand the response to the eurozone crisis especially the conditionality of funding Greece s reform capacity with a focus on its tax administration and the expansion of the scope of non majoritarian institutions in Western democracies

Caring for Life Kelly Dombroski, 2024-03-12 The transformational possibilities of everyday hygiene and care practices In order to mitigate the worst forecasts of climate change many of us need to make drastic adjustments to how we live and what we consume For

Kelly Dombroski these changes must also happen in the home in rethinking routines of care and hygiene that still rely on disposable and plastic products Caring for Life examines the remarkable evolution in Asia Pacific hygiene practices and amplifies the creative work of ordinary people guarding human and more than human life in their everyday practices of care Dombroski develops the concept of guarding life a viewpoint that counters homogenous cultural practices and imposed sanitation standards and instead embraces diverse hygiene practices that are networked across varying wisdoms and bodies She traces how the Chinese diaper free infant toilet training practice of baniao has traveled to Australia and New Zealand and she explores the practice of elimination communication in which babies learn to communicate to their caregivers when they need to eliminate thus removing the need for diapers A mother herself Dombroski conducted ethnographic research while mothering to examine how collectives of mothers draw on Chinese knowledge and their own embodied practices of childcare to create new hybrid forms of infant care Caring for Life is a call to action a theory of change and a fascinating account of the transformational possibilities of care practices It shows how experiments in personal care can lead to collective widespread change ultimately providing a practical and hopeful vision for environmental action Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

Life in Language Ingie Hovland, 2025-03-22 A new anthropology of Protestant feminism anchored by the language experiments of one Lutheran community The language of the Bible is a powerful lens through which many Protestants understand themselves and their world and its prohibitions on women s speech pose complicated challenges to women Nevertheless women frequently serve as vocal leaders in Protestant organizations including the early twentieth century Norwegian Mission Society In Life in Language Ingie Hovland offers a unique biography of Henny Dons a leader of the society s so called mission feminists that grapples with ways Protestant women crafted innovative expansive self understandings through Christian language More than their male peers the mission feminists turned to religious speech to express material as well as heavenly desires for paid work voting rights and more and Hovland argues that these experiments in women speaking reading writing and listening paved the way for a new way of being in the world
