Border Dialogues Journeys Into Postmodernity:

Border Dialogues Iain Chambers, 1990 The essays in Border Dialogues embark on journeys into some of the most challenging territories of contemporary culture philosophy and criticism They intervene in the debate on modernism and postmodernism through critical encounters with a diverse range of theoretical and cultural topics By exploring the interstitial zones where traditional disciplines and discourses overlap Chambers seeks to widen some of the terms of contemporary critical thought The common goal of the essays in Border Dialogues is a reading of postmodernity in which the different voices and vocabularies in contemporary theory come together in an increasingly shared network

Border Dialogues (Routledge Revivals) Iain Chambers, 2013-10-02 First published in 1990 Border Dialogues explores some of the territories of contemporary culture philosophy and criticism It touches on arguments surrounding Nietzsche and Italian weak thought the mysteries of being British and with more immediate concerns such as computers fashion gender and ethnicity The chapters explore how such different strands are joined together and how this can lead to a reassessment of contemporary cultural criticism This innovative and interesting reissue will be of particular interest to students of critical theory cultural studies radical philosophy and deconstruction

Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell, 2013-01-11 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity

On the Move Tim Cresswell, 2006 On the Move presents a rich history of one of the key concepts of modern life mobility Increasing mobility has been a constant throughout the modern era evident in mass car ownership plane travel and the rise of the Internet Typically people have equated increasing mobility with increasing freedom However as Cresswell shows while mobility has certainly increased in modern times attempts to control and restrict mobility are just as characteristic of modernity Through a series of fascinating historical episodes Cresswell shows how mobility and its regulation have been central to the experience of modernity

Mexican Travel Writing Thea Pitman, 2008 This book is a detailed study of salient examples of Mexican travel writing from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries While scholars have often explored the close relationship between European or North American travel writing and the discourse of imperialism little has been written on how postcolonial subjects might relate to the genre This study first traces the development of a travel writing tradition based closely on European imperialist models in mid nineteenth century Mexico It then goes on to analyse how the narrative techniques of postmodernism and the political agenda of postcolonialism might combine to help challenge the genre s imperialist tendencies in late twentieth century works of travel writing focusing in particular on works by writers Juan Villoro Hector Perea and Fernando Solana Olivares Between Borders Henry A.
