□□□□□□□□□□,1998 Chinese History Endymion Porter Wilkinson,2000 Endymion Wilkinson's bestselling manual of Chinese history has long been an indispensable guide to all those interested in the civilization and history of China. In this latest edition, now in a bigger format, its scope has been dramatically enlarged by the addition of one million words of new text. Twelve years in the making, the new manual introduces students to different types of transmitted, excavated, and artifactual sources from prehistory to the twentieth century. It also examines the context in which the sources were produced, preserved, and received; the problems of research and interpretation associated with them; and the best, most up-to-date secondary works. Because the writing of history has always played a central role in Chinese politics and culture, special attention is devoted to the strengths and weaknesses of Chinese historiography.

Dictionary of Lexicography R. R. K. Hartmann, Gregory James, 2002-01-04. Dictionaries are among the most frequently consulted books, yet we know remarkably little about them. Who makes them? Where do they come from? What do they offer? How can we evaluate them? The Dictionary of Lexicography provides answers to all these questions and addresses a wide range of issues: the traditions of dictionary-making; the different types of dictionaries and other reference works such as thesaurus, encyclopedia, atlas, and telephone directory; the principles and concerns of lexicographers and other reference professionals; the standards of dictionary criticism and dictionary use. It is both a professional handbook and an easy-to-use reference work. This is the first time that the subject has been covered in such a comprehensive manner in the form of a reference book. All articles are self-contained, cross-referenced, and uniformly structured. The whole is an up-to-date and forward-looking survey of lexicography.

Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullan, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1999. A revised and updated guide to reference material. It contains selective and evaluative entries to guide the enquirer to the best source of reference in each subject area, be it journal article, CD-ROM, on-line database, bibliography, encyclopaedia, monograph, or directory. It features full critical annotations and reviewers' comments and comprehensive author, title, and subject indexes. The contents include philosophy and psychology, religion, social sciences, sociology, statistics, politics, economics, labour and employment, land and property, business organizations, finance and banking, and economic surveys, economic policies and controls, trade and commerce, business and management, and law, public administration, social services, and welfare, education, customs and traditions, geography, biography, and history.

Castration and Culture in the Middle Ages Larissa Tracy, 2013. Essays exploring medieval castration as reflected in archaeology, law, historical record, and literary motifs. Castration and castrati have always been facets of western culture, from myth and legend to law and theology, from eunuchs guarding harems to the seventeenth and eighteenth-century castrati singers. Metaphoric castration pervades a number of medieval literary genres, particularly the Old French fabliaux, exchanges of power predicated upon the exchange or absence of sexual desire signified by genitalia, but the plain literal act of castration and its implications are often overlooked This collection explores this often taboo subject and its implications for cultural mores and custom in Western Europe seeking to demystify and demythologize castration Its subjects include archaeological studies of eunuchs historical accounts of castration in trials of combat the mutilation of political rivals in medieval Wales Anglo Saxon and Frisian legal and literary examples of castration as punishment castration as comedy in the Old French fabliaux the prohibition against genital mutilation in hagiography and early modern anxieties about punitive castration enacted on the Elizabethan stage The introduction reflects on these topics in the context of arguably the most well known victim of castration in the middle ages Abelard LARISSA TRACY is Associate Professor of Medieval Literature at Longwood University Contributors Larissa Tracy Kathryn Reusch Shaun Tougher Jack Collins Rolf H Bremmer Jr Jay Paul Gates Charlene M Eska Mary A Valante Anthony Adams Mary E Leech Jed Chandler Ellen Lorraine Friedrich Robert L A Clark Karin Sellberg Lena W nggren Archaeology and Language III Roger Blench, Matthew Spriggs, 2012-10-12 Archaeology and Language III interprets results from archaeological data in terms of language distribution and change providing the tools for a radical rewriting of the conventional discourse of prehistory Individual chapters present case studies of artefacts and fragmentary textual materials concerned with the reconstruction of houses maritime technology pottery and grave goods The Concise Oxford Dictionary of Archaeology Timothy Darvill, 2021 This dictionary covers the essential vocabulary for everyday archaeological work in the English language focusing especially on Europe the Old World and the Americas There is coverage of principles theories techniques artefacts materials people places monuments equipment and descriptive terms This edition adds a fair number of entries relating to the Near East and Asia These include Angara Style Donghulin Culture Hasanlu Samarra Culture and Tel Tsaf as well as a new appendix listing Chinese rulers and dynasties Atlas of the World's Languages R.E. Asher, Christopher Moseley, 2018-04-19 Before the first appearance of the Atlas of the World's Languages in 1993 all the world's languages had never been accurately and completely mapped The Atlas depicts the location of every known living language including languages on the point of extinction This fully revised edition of the Atlas offers up to date research some from fieldwork in early 2006 a general linguistic history of each section an overview of the genetic relations of the languages in each section statistical and sociolinguistic information a large number of new or completely updated maps further reading and a bibliography for each section a cross referenced language index of over 6 000 languages Presenting contributions from international scholars covering over 6 000 languages and containing over 150 full colour maps the Atlas of the World's Languages is the definitive reference resource for every linguistic and reference library Dictionary of Archaeological Terms: English/French - French/English Tinaig Clodoré Tissot, 2012-07-01 This concise dictionary is intended to be helpful in the reading of archaeological books and publications and in the writing of papers and articles in both English and French 3rd Underwater Science Symposium , 1996 Dictionaries, Encyclopedias, and Other Word-related Books: Multiple
