McFarland, 2013 The sixth edition first published as an ebook and this seventh edition carry forward the philosophy and structure of the earlier editions This book is not a comprehensive treatise on the subject of civil procedure yet it provides a mixture of expository text cases and self testing questions in nearly all of the major areas of the subject In order to maximize accessibility flexibility and compatibility of the book the authors have chosen CALI s eLangdell Press to publish and distribute the sixth edition as chapters and this revised seventh as a complete book electronically with a Creative Commons license Publishing a law textbook electronically with far fewer restrictions than most commercial books and using a somewhat new boutique outfit such as eLangdell Press is an unconventional choice to say the least But the authors share the eLangdell vision of more flexible teaching materials for professors and more cost effective books for students Professors may now edit and remix this work to match their teaching without worry of copyright infringement Students may now adopt this book read it using any number of software or devices and even print it all for free The book s authors like its publishers believe that this new book model represents an important and long overdue step forward in the way law school books are published All the exercises have been substantially revised for this edition The individual exercises also are reorganized and expanded so that they follow a more standardized pattern expository text on the topic area work book questions and introduction to the related online CALI lessons This book and the accompanying interactive exercises known as CALI Lessons available online through the Center for Computer Assisted Legal Instruction CALI at www.cali.org are intended to provide a challenging educational experience For each exercise students should read the text in this book and answer the questions before accessing the rest of the exercise online Exercise Two Jurisdiction Jurisdiction and Venue and Jurisdiction Over the Person Exercise Three Pleading a Complaint Exercise Five Motions to Dismiss and Waiver under Federal Rule 12 Exercise Six Joinder and Supplemental Jurisdiction An Exercise in Civil Procedure Review of Joinder Concepts Joinder of Claims and Parties and An Interpleader Primer Exercise Eight Summary Judgment and Exercise Eleven Preclusion Additionally Exercise One Holding and Dicta in the Context of a Diversity Case is an excellent introduction to legal method The first two editions of this book by Roger Park included Exercise One Holding and Dicta in the Context of a Diversity Case Exercise Two Jurisdiction Exercise Three Pleading a Complaint Exercise Four Demurrers and Judgments on the Pleadings Exercise Five Motions to Dismiss and Waiver Under Rule 12 Exercise Nine Judgment as a Matter of Law and Exercise Ten Evidence for Civil Procedure Students For the last five editions of this book Douglas McFarland has edited the above exercises and added Exercise Six Joinder and Supplemental Jurisdiction Exercise Seven Discovery Exercise Eight Summary Judgment and Exercise Eleven Preclusion Accordingly the book has become more comprehensive expanding from seven to eleven exercises Of course each new edition
