History of Surfing Matt Warshaw,2011-04-29 This in depth photo packed look at the history and culture of surfers is meticulously researched smartly written required reading Outside Magazine Matt Warshaw knows more about surfing than any other person on the planet After five years of research and writing Warshaw a former professional surfer and editor of Surfing magazine has crafted an unprecedented definitive history of the sport and the culture it has spawned With more than 250 rare photographs The History of Surfing reveals and defines this sport with a voice that is authoritative funny and wholly original The obsessive nature of Warshaw s endeavor is matched only by the obsessive nature of surfers who are brought to life in this book in many tales of daring innovation athletic achievement and the offbeat personalities who have made surfing history happen The world s most comprehensive chronicler of the surfing scene Andy Martin The Independent The Surfing Yearbook Bruce Boal,2009-05 THE SURFING YEAR BOOK OFFERS the complete package of news features results opinions and photography providing an insider s view of everything that matters in each of the world s surfing regions Africa Europe Southeast Asia and Japan South and Central America United States United Kingdom and Australia An extended Surfing Year Book awareness campaign is underway at Surfersvillage com the world s biggest surfing news Web site with more than twenty two million visitor sessions a year Surfersvillage will also utilize its large family of publishing partners around the world to advertise the book s arrival in all surfing markets With each regional section offering text in English and language of origin the book will have broad appeal in all world surfing markets Photo essays from the best surf photographers around the world profiles of all the leading surfers of 2008 Ocean environmental issues weather and swell reports The only global directory of surfing products and services International sponsors include O'Neill Quiksilver Vans Europe Oakley Europe Solitude Billabong Hurley Rip Curl and Body Glove Online marketing and promotions Print and web advertising campaign Co-op available For years Surfersvillage has led the world in providing the most comprehensive online information about the sport culture and industry of surfing from the biggest swell events and contests to the tiniest club meets on the back beaches of the most remote coasts The Perfect Day Sam George,2003-06 Photographs and articles from Surfer magazine help chronicle this history of surfing Patting the Shark Tim Baker,2022-08-02 Tim Baker was living the dream A best selling and award winning surf writer with a beautiful family a lifetime of exotic travel and a home walking distance to quality waves That all changed on July 7 2015 when he was diagnosed out of the blue with stage 4 metastatic prostate cancer So began a descent into the debilitating world of aggressive cancer treatments and a fight for a survival as brutal as any big wave hold down Tim writes candidly and with a raw vulnerability about this perilous journey through chemotherapy hormone therapy radiation and surgery and his own determined lifestyle strategies to maintain mind body and spirit Happily surfing provided one of his most powerful forms of therapy and writing about his experiences has proven deeply cathartic In 2020 1.5 million men were diagnosed with prostate cancer globally and 375,000 lost their lives In Australia one in seven men will develop prostate cancer Yet mainstream oncology concedes its ability to keep men with prostate cancer alive has outstripped its ability to manage the often devastating side effects of treatment Men with prostate cancer are living longer but with a steadily declining quality of life Patting The Shark documents Tim's efforts to navigate his way through the maze of conventional and supportive therapies meditation diet exercise emotional support counselling Ultimately it is a desperate plea for a more integrative approach to cancer care treating the whole person and not just the cancer allowing cancer patients a sense of empowerment and agency in charting their path through treatment This is a story about facing your mortality staring down your fears and working out what really matters in life when so many elements of your identity are stripped away It offers hope comfort and empathy for anyone facing a cancer diagnosis and their loved ones
