Butterfly Dawn:

Butterfly Dawn Greg Sky, 2005-08 Six vibrant and self contained short stories comprise the tales which are then woven into the overarching Butterfly Dawn plot Our lives are like that of the butterfly short but glorious Such are the words of Dyrfinna an integral member of the ancient Ogurr people a community that inhabited the fertile lands of the Jut River far back in the mists of time Initially a paternalistic and nomadic hunter gatherer community the Ogurrs exhibit skills and attitudes far in advance of their time At first presided over by the warlord Mai ko the Ogurrs sense the winds of change are in the air It is clear the two favourites to succeed Maiko s rule are the warriors Ludic and Kettil That battle will be decided on the warrior s field but it is not the only one of importance the two warriors must also compete for the affections of the beautiful Arnkatla Drawing on the experiences of a diverse array of characters the Tales of the Butterfly Dawn arc gracefully between ancient and modern eras gently revealing the mythic and archetypal roots that shape the future More than just an epic of battle and conquering heroes the Tales of the Butterfly Dawn is also an intuitive study of sociological progression as the author skillfully outlines the challenges and decisions that the Ogurrs experience as their culture becomes progressively more sophisticated
