Differ We Must Steve Inskeep,2025-02-11 An instant New York Times bestseller A nuanced exploration of Abraham Lincoln s political acumen illuminating a great politician s strategy in a country divided and lessons for our own disorderly present In 1855 with the United States at odds over slavery the lawyer Abraham Lincoln wrote a note to his best friend the son of a Kentucky slaveowner Lincoln rebuked his friend for failing to oppose slavery But he added If for this you and I must differ differ we must and said they would be friends forever Throughout his life and political career Lincoln often agreed to disagree Democracy demanded it since even an adversary had a vote The man who went on to become America s sixteenth president has assumed many roles in our historical consciousness but most notable is that he was unapologetically a politician And as Steve Inskeep argues it was because he was willing to engage in politics meeting with critics sometimes working with them and other times outwitting them that he was able to lead a social revolution In Differ We Must Inskeep illuminates Lincoln s life through sixteen encounters some well known some obscure but all imbued with new significance As the host of NPR s Morning Edition for almost two decades Inskeep has mastered the art of bridging divides and building constructive debate in interviews here he brings his skills to bear on a prior master forming a fresh and compelling narrative of Lincoln s life With rich detail and enlightening commentary Inskeep expands our understanding of a politician who held strong to his moral compass while navigating between corrosive political factions one who began his career in the minority party and not only won the majority but succeeded in uniting a nation

The Destruction of the Bison Andrew C.

Isenberg,2000-03-28 The Destruction of the Bison first published in 2000 explains the decline of the North American bison population from an estimated 30 million in 1800 to fewer than a thousand a century later In this wide ranging interdisciplinary study Andrew C Isenberg argues that the cultural and ecological encounter between Native Americans and Euroamericans in the Great Plains was the central cause of the near extinction of the bison Cultural and ecological interactions created new types of bison hunters on both sides of the encounter mounted Indian nomads and Euroamerican industrial hidemen Together with environmental pressures these hunters nearly extinguished the bison In the early twentieth century nostalgia about the very cultural strife which first threatened the bison became ironically an important impetus to its preservation
