James P. Ware, 2005-11-01 Paul seemingly nowhere in his letters commands his congregations to preach the gospel Therefore many scholars have concluded that Paul's thinking had little or no place for a mission of the church This study undertakes a fresh investigation of the question by devoting close attention to a text hitherto overlooked in discussion of early Christian mission Paul's letter to the Philippians The Jewish context of Paul's thought in Philippians is the key to unlocking his understanding of church and mission in the letter The study accordingly begins in Part One with an investigation of conversion of gentiles in ancient Judaism Part Two drawing upon this Jewish context focuses on close exegesis of Philippians revealing the crucial place of the mission of the church in Paul's thought The questions addressed by this study go to the heart of our understanding of Paul and of mission in earliest Christianity The Moving Picture World, 1908 Moving Picture World and View Photographer, 1916 Lexicon Zu Shakespeare's Werken. - Berlin, London, Reimer 1874-1875 Alexander Schmidt, 1875 The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy Burt Hopkins, John Drummond, 2015-03-24 The New Yearbook for Phenomenology and Phenomenological Philosophy provides an annual international forum for phenomenological research in the spirit of Husserl's groundbreaking work and the extension of this work by such figures as Scheler Heidegger Sartre Levinas Merleau Ponty and Gadamer Railway Carmen's Journal, 1911 Material Feminisms: New Directions for Education Carol Taylor, Gabrielle Iverson, 2018-02-02 Material Feminisms New Directions for Education provides a range of powerful theoretical and innovative methodological examples to illuminate how new material feminism can be put to work in education to open up new avenues of research design and practice It poses challenging questions about the nature of knowledge production the role of the researcher and the critical endeavour arising from inter and post disciplinarity Working with diffractive methodologies and new materialist ecological epistemologies the book offers resources for hope which widen the scope for how educational problems are interrogated and provides a political counter movement to neo positivist outcomes based approaches within education Inspired by writers such as Barad Bennett and Deleuze and Guattari the book makes a radical break with cognitive dualist and universal conceptions of human subjectivity and intelligence in education By taking its starting point as the co constitutiveness of discourse materiality corporeality and place the book foregrounds educational practices as material enactments of multiple non linear entangled affective and relational forces It offers new insights into how gender class and ethnicity are constituted in and by material assemblages that are often submerged or unseen This book is an essential starting place for those intrigued by what new theoretical accounts of materiality posthumanism and affect can offer educational research Diffractive methodologies challenge readers to take a fuller range of actors into account than in objective humanist methodologies and in so doing to pay closer attention to what data is It invites researchers to engage with long standing feminist concerns about power and knowledge production in research processes This book was originally published as a special issue of Gender and Education HOYT'S NEW CYCLOPEDIA OF PRACTICAL QUOTATIONS KATE
