Life and Art Richard Russo, 2005-05-13 A marvelous new essay collection from the Pulitzer Prize winning author of Somebody's Fool and The Destiny Thief Life and Art these are the twin subjects considered in Richard Russo's twelve masterful new essays how they inform each other and how the stories we tell ourselves about both shape our understanding of the world around us In The Lives of Others he reflects on the implacable fact that writers use people insisting that what matters in the end is how and for what purpose How do you bridge the gap between what you know and what you don't and sometimes can't know Why tell a story in the first place What we don't understand Russo opines is in fact the very thing that beckons to us In Stiff Neck he writes of the exasperating fault lines exposed within his own family as his wife's sister and her husband proudly unvaccinated develop COVID In Triage he details with heartbreaking vividness the terror of seeing his seven year old grandson in critical condition And in Ghosts he revisits Gloversville the town that gave rise to the now legendary fictional town of North Bath and confronts the specter of its richly populated past and its ghostly present Sharp tender extraordinarily intimate reflections on work culture love and family from one of the great writers of our time
