Shadow Working in Project Management Joana Bértholo,2017-07-06 Shadow Working in Project Management aims at contributing to our knowledge of all things unconscious and irrational in our behaviour It takes the form of an empirical research and therefore addresses mostly the tools and techniques available to get in touch with Shadow aspects of self and collective to recognize how it manifests how it can lead to conflict and ways to address it From that perspective it advances on to question the underlying beliefs of current management practices It explores as well the inherent need for control in projects being those of a professional nature or other ventures It challenges the strength of the concept of the rational man and its protagonism Joana B rtholo s work explores the role and nature of the Shadow in the context of projects and their management with an emphasis on techniques to address it Despite being directed to managers and dedicated to the analyses of the managerial discourse the tools and processes it proposes have universal relevance based on the fact that the Shadow is everywhere within everyone from the individual to the global scale Shadow Archaeologies Assaf Nativ,Gavin Lucas,2025-07-31 Shadow Archaeologies explores the modes of knowledge production which operate where the light of mainstream historically oriented archaeology does not reach It exposes the field s underbelly and dwells on issues that standard practice ignores or glosses over questioning what archaeology and the archaeological are or could be The volume brings together scholars working at the discipline s theoretical cutting edge to challenge mainstream archaeology in various ways They engage with the political dimensions of the discipline s mode of production develop alternate practices and conceive of other manifestations of the archaeological object thus illuminating various ways in which the concept of shadow archaeology can be articulated After an introduction by the editors the volume is organised into three parts which address from different angles the politics practices and objects of an archaeology that resides in the shadow of antiquity While the book will appeal to any archaeologist with an interest in theory it is also a challenge to all archaeologists to reflect on their discipline and their own working practices and an invitation to join in the discussion about what archaeology might become

The Scottish Educational Journal ,1923 The Conflict in Syria and the Failure of International Law to Protect People Globally Jeremy Julian Sarkin,2021-11-28 This book explores through the lens of the conflict in Syria why international law and the United Nations have failed to halt conflict and massive human rights violations in many places around the world which has allowed tens of millions of people to be killed and hundreds of millions more to be harmed The work presents a critical socio legal analysis of the failures of international law and the United Nations UN to deal with mass atrocities and conflict It argues that international law in the way it is set up and operates falls short in dealing with these issues in many respects The argument is that international law is state centred rather than victim friendly is to some extent outdated is vague and often difficult to understand and therefore at times hard to apply While various accountability processes have come to the fore recently processes do not exist to assist individual victims while the conflict occurs or the abuses are being perpetrated The book focuses on the problems of international law and the UN and in the context of the many enforced disappearances and arbitrary detentions in Syria why nothing has been done to deal with a rogue state that has regularly violated international law It examines why the responsibility to protect R2P has not been applied and why it ought to be used generally and in Syria It uses the Syrian context to evaluate the weaknesses of the system and why reform is needed It examines the UN institutional mechanisms the role they play and why a civilian protection system is needed It examines what mechanism ought to be set up to deal with the possible one million people who have been disappeared and detained in Syria The book will be a valuable resource for students academics and policy makers working in the areas of public international law international human rights law political science and peace and security studies American Book Publishing Record ,1987 The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1885 Literary News ,1887 Literary News Frederick Leypoldt,1887 The DVD-laser Disc Newsletter ,2002 Ladies' Home Journal and Practical Housekeeper ,1898 Engineering and Mining Journal ,1928 The Athenaeum ,1884 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1884 The Tablet ,1896 The Literary World ,1879 The Journal of the Armed Forces ,1881
