Darlinghissima Letters To A Friend:

Darlinghissima Janet Flanner, 1986 A portrait of a rich friendship between two women presents a collection of letters spanning four decades accompanied by reminiscences that capture the culture and society of an era and comment on European art politics social life and celebrities These Are Love(D) Letters Ames Hawkins, 2019-10-15 Intimate and unwavering exploration of love loss and the queer possibilities inherent in artistic aspiration Ames Hawkins's These are Love d Letters is a genre bending visual memoir and work of literary nonfiction that explores the questions What inspires a person to write a love letter What inspires a person to save a love letter even when the love has shifted or left And what does it mean when a person uses someone else's love letters as a place from which to create their own sense of self Beginning with the simple act of the author receiving twenty letters written by her father to her mother over a six week period in 1966 These are Love d Letters provides a complex pictorial and textual exploration of the work of the love letter Through intimate and incisive prose the letters were after all always intended to be a private dialogue between her parents Hawkins weaves her own struggles with gender sexuality and artistic awakening in relation to the story of her parents marriage that ended in divorce Her father's HIV diagnosis and death by complications related to AIDS provide the context for an unflinchingly honest look at bodily disease and mortality Hawkins delicately and relentlessly explores the tensions in a father daughter relationship that stem from a differently situated connection to queer identity and a shared struggle with artistic desire In communion with queer and lesbian writers from Emily Dickinson and Virginia Woolf to Alison Bechdel and Maggie Nelson Hawkins pushes exploration of the self with the same intellectual rigor that she critiques the limits of epistolarity by continually relocating all the generative and arresting creative powers of this found art with scholarly rhetorical strategies Exquisitely designed by Jessica Jacobs These are Love d Letters presents an affective experience that reinforces Hawkins's meditations on the ephemeral beauty of love letters As poetic as it is visually enticing the book offers both an unconventional and queer ed understanding of the documentarian form which will excite both readers and artists across and beyond genres

Darlinghissima Janet Flanner, 1985 A chronicle of the friendship between two women remarkable for their devotion to the ideals of liberty The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2015-07-15 This volume of correspondence the last in a three volume edition spans a pivotal moment in American history the mid twentieth century from the beginning of World War II through the years of rebuilding and uneasy peace that followed to the election of President John F Kennedy Robinson Jeffers published four important books during this period Be Angry at the Sun 1941 Medea 1946 The Double Axe 1948 and Hungerfield 1954 He also faced changes to his hometown village of Carmel experienced the rewards of being a successful dramatist in the United States and abroad and endured the loss of his wife Una Jeffers letters and those of Una written in the decade prior to her death offer a vivid chronicle of the life and times of a singular and visionary poet Edinburgh Companion to Women in Publishing, 1900-2020 Elizabeth

Willson Gordon, Alice Staveley, Helen Southworth, Daniela La Penna, MARRISA JOSEPH, Sophie Heywood, Claire Battershill, Nicola Wilson, 2024-02-06 Women's creative labour in publishing has often been overlooked. This book draws on dynamic new work in feminist book history and publishing studies to offer the first comparative collection exploring women's diverse, deeply embedded work in modern publishing. Highlighting the value of networks, collaboration, and archives, the companion sets out new ways of reading women's contributions to the production and circulation of global print cultures. With an international, intergenerational set of contributors using diverse methodologies, essays explore women working in publishing transatlantically on the continent and beyond the Anglosphere. The book combines new work on high-profile women publishers and editors alongside analysis of women's work as translators, illustrators, booksellers, advertisers, patrons, and publisher's readers, complemented by new oral histories and interviews with leading women in publishing today. The first collection of its kind, the companion helps establish and shape a thriving new research field. Women & Aging Helen Ripplier Wheeler, 1997 Guide with more than two thousand bibliographic entries and cross references. It includes journal articles, book chapters, essays, and doctoral dissertations, as well as complete books. MacArthur Park Judith Freeman, 2021-10-12 A captivating, emotionally taut novel about the complexities of a friendship between two women and how it shapes and reshapes both of their lives. Filled with gorgeous prose and deep emotion, it explores what it means to be an artist, delves into the vicissitudes of life and death, and takes us on a journey through the splendor and sometimes ugliness of the American West, with dollops of Flaubert, Faulkner, Chekhov, Collette, and Chandler along the way. Lisa See, author of The Island of Sea Women. Jolene and Verna share complicated ties that have crystallized over time. Beginning when they were girls, discovering their needs and desires, their ongoing stories have been inextricably linked. But when Verna marries Vincent, Jolene's ex-husband, their paths may have finally permanently diverged. A successful and provocative feminist artist, Jolene travels the world, attracting attention wherever she goes. Verna, a writer, works from her home near MacArthur Park in Los Angeles, where she and Vincent plan to spend the rest of their lives in a contemplative, intimate routine. Then Jolene asks one more favor of Verna: to take a road trip with her to their small hometown in Utah. It's a journey that will force them to confront both the truths and falsehoods of their memories of each other and of the very beginnings of their friendship, and to reckon with the meaning of love, of time itself, of the bonds that matter most to us, and with what we owe one another. The Apparitional Lesbian Terry Castle, 1993 In essays on literary images of lesbianism from Defoe and Diderot to Virginia Woolf and Djuna Barnes, on the homosexual reputation of Marie Antoinette, on the lesbian writings of Anne Lister, Sylvia Townsend Warner, and Janet Flanner, and on Henry James's The Bostonians, Castle shows how a lesbian presence can be identified in the literature history and culture of the past three centuries. An Emotional History of the United States Peter N. Stearns, Jan Lewis, 1998 Emotions lie at our very core as human beings. How we process and grapple with our emotions, how and what we emote, and how we respond to the emotions of others constitute the essence of our social universe. In a very real sense we exist only through the prism of our emotions And yet the profound effect of human emotion on history politics religion and culture remains underexamined While the influence of emotion in such realms as American foreign policy has been well documented other emotional aspects of American history have escaped notice What role for instance does emotion have in the practice of African American religion How do shame and self hatred influence American conceptions of identity How does our emotional life change as we age To what degree is American consumerism driven by basic human emotion With this landmark anthology historians Peter N Stearns and Jan Lewis provide a road map of the American emotional landscape From the emotional world of working class Massachusetts to the prayers of evangelical and pentecostal women and the gendered nature of black rage these essays provide a multicultural snapshot of the unique nature and evolution of American emotions
