The Eucharist in Modern Philosophy Xavier Tilliette, 2022-12-27 The Eucharist in Modern Philosophy is one of the last books written by the renowned Jesuit philosopher Xavier Tilliette 1921 2018 and the first to be translated into English Jonathan Martin Ciraulo the translator also provides an introduction to the thought of Tilliette and the content of this book while Cyril O Regan provides the foreword noting the particular intellectual characteristics of Tilliette and his analysis of eucharistic philosophies In addition to being known as one of the foremost experts on the German Idealist Friedrich Schelling Tilliette wrote voluminously on the relationship between modern philosophy and theology particularly concerning the way in which Christology is central to the development of modern philosophy In this volume he extends that project to look at how various philosophers such as Descartes Leibniz Hegel Blondel and Marion as well as poets and mystics such as de Chardin Simone Weil and Paul Claudel thought extensively about the question of the Eucharist The result is an enormous diversity of Eucharistic thought from Descartes attempt to justify transubstantiation in light of his philosophical revolution to Feuerbach s supposed exposure of the contradiction inherent to sacramentality to Antonio Rosmini s eucharistic piety and speculation to Maurice Blondel s recovery and expansion of Leibniz s notion of the substantial bond Tilliette shows that this philosophical conversation about the Eucharist is a living tradition as the aporias and failures of one generation provide stimulus for all that follows Much of the work is largely historical showing in great detail the context of each particular eucharistic philosophy but Tilliette also evaluates the relative fruitfulness of the various eucharistic theories for philosophy theology and the life of the Church This book demonstrates that the Eucharist has been and will likely continue to be a major impetus for philosophical reflection American Kennel Club Stud Book ,1930 Austrian Information ,1977 Christian Nation ,1903 Newport Through Its Architecture James L. Yarnall,2005 A comprehensive architectural history of America s greatest living architectural laboratory The Monthly Literary Advertiser ,1848 London in Cinema Charlotte Brunsdon,2019-07-25 Charlotte Brunsdon s illuminating study explores the variety of cinematic Londons that appear in films made since 1945 Brunsdon traces the familiar ways that film makers establish that a film is set in London by use of recognisable landmarks and the city s shorthand iconography of red buses and black taxis as well as the ways in which these icons are avoided She looks at London weather fog and rain and everyday locations like the pub and the housing estate while also examining the recurring patterns of representation associated with films set in the East and West Ends of London from Spring in Park Lane 1948 to Mona Lisa 1986 and from Night and the City 1950 to From Hell 2001 Brunsdon provides a detailed analysis of a selection of films exploring their contribution to the cinematic geography of London and showing the ways in which feature films have responded to and created changing views of the city She traces London s transformation from imperial capital to global city through the different ways in which the local is imagined in films ranging from Ealing comedies to Pressure 1974 as well as through the shifting imagery of the River Thames and the Docks She addresses the role of cinematic genres such as horror and film noir in the constitution of the cinematic city as well as the recurrence of figures such as the cockney the gangster and the housewife Challenging the view that London is not a particularly cinematic city Brunsdon demonstrates that many London set films offer their own meditation on the complex relationships between the cinema and the city Life Henry R.
