Dark Jester:

Resisting Alterities ,2021-11-01 This volume of essays poetry and prose fiction records various attempts to read the fracture zones created by the discursive strategy of a democratic imagination where space and ideas are opened to new linguistic and literary insights Pride of place is taken by essays on the Caribbean writer Wilson Harris which explore the implications of his awareness of a polyphony of coexistent voices that dislodges the hegemony of Cartesian dualism This group of studies is rounded off with an interview with and searching testimony by Harris himself The further contributions take up the implications of the encounter with alterity strangers natives barbarians in order to underline not only wonder in the face of an unknown presence or the shame through which the subject discovers itself but also the resentment involved in the creation of demonized Others As the poet Charles Tomlinson states what we take to be otherness alterity can be readmitted into our literary consciousness and seen as part of the whole causing us to readjust our awareness of the possibilities of English These essays confirm that resistance is an interface of ambivalence between discursive worlds encouraging us to read the living network of a text contrapuntally Specific topics include Billy Bragg and New Labour Schopenhauer in Britain Objectivist poetry gender and sexual identity in Nancy Cunard in Scottish fiction multivocal discourse in South Africa specific forms of alterity in Jamaica Kincaid in the poetry of Edwin Morgan in allo-Semitism and the deculturalizing perils of globalization
