Franz Rosenzweig and Jehuda Halevi Barbara Ellen

Galli, Franz Rosenzweig, 1995 Franz Rosenzweig 1886 1929 one of the most daunting modern Jewish thinkers exercises a profound influence on contemporary philosophy and modern Jewish thought In this seminal study Barbara Galli provides the first English translation of Franz Rosenzweig s Jehuda Halevi Zweiundneunzig Hymnen und Gedichte a German translation of the poems of the great medieval Jewish poet Jehuda Halevi followed by a lively interpretive response Galli s primary aim is to explore Rosenzweig s statement that his Notes to Halevi s poems exemplify a practical application of the philosophic system he set out in The Star of Redemption Through an extended multifaceted investigation of Rosenzweig s thought Galli uncovers his philosophy of translation out of which she determines and unravels his philosophic conclusion and his belief that there is only one language In the final chapters she concentrates on the Notes to the poems and in doing so attempts to philosophize according to Rosenzweig s own mandate full speech is word and response An Episode of Jewish Romanticism Ernest H. Rubinstein, 2012-02-01 Examining romanticism in the thought of Jewish philosopher Franz Rosenzweig this book compares his magnum opus The Star of Redemption with Leo Baeck s essay Romantic Religion and Friedrich Schelling s Philosophy of Art texts representing two distinct and to a large extent opposed interpretations of romanticism Rosenzweig s thought was shaped by two intellectual histories Germany s and Judaism s Because romanticism had such a definite impact on modern German writing and thought it becomes a question whether and to what extent Rosenzweig too was a romantic Part of the force of the question derives from the tensions sometimes noted between Jewish and romantic worldviews In this book author Ernest Rubinstein shows The Star of Redemption to be along the spectrum of ideas that extends between Baeck and Schelling and thus illustrates a qualified romanticism

Shapes of Time Michael McGillen, 2023-12-15 Shapes of Time

explores how concepts of time and history were spatialized in early twentieth century German thought Michael McGillen locates efforts in German modernism to conceive of alternative shapes of time beyond those of historicism and nineteenth century philosophies of history at the boundary between secular and theological discourses By analyzing canonical works of German modernism those of Karl Barth Franz Rosenzweig Siegfried Kracauer and Robert Musil he identifies the ways in which spatial imagery and metaphors were employed to both separate the end of history from a narrative framework and to map the liminal relation between history and eschatology Drawing on theories and practices as disparate as constructivism non Euclidean geometry photography and urban architecture Shapes of Time presents original connections between modernism theology and mathematics as played out within the canon of twentieth century German letters Concepts of temporal and spatial form McGillen contends contribute to the understanding not only of modernist literature but also of larger theoretical concerns within modern cultural and intellectual history Quaestio ,2004 Catalogue of Printed

God/saving Time George Pattison, 2015 Starting from the assumption that time is the horizon of the meaning of Being Heidegger Eternal God Saving Time attempts to discover what the central religious idea of eternity or of God as the Eternal might mean today Negotiating ideas of divine timelessness and sempiternity everlastingness as well as the attempts of some philosophers to develop the idea of a temporal God Professor George Pattison surveys a range of positions from analytic philosophy and from the continental tradition from Spinoza through Hegel to the present Intellectual and cultural forces have tended to separate time and eternity and both philosophical and theological examples of this tendency are examined Nevertheless starting from the experience of life in time some modern thinkers have developed a new approach to the Eternal as what grounds or gives time This leads through ideas of novelty utopia hope promise and call to the projection of a creative and transformative memory remembering the future that affirms human solidarity and mutual responsibility Even if this cannot be made good in terms of knowledge it offers a basis for hope prayer and commitment and these options are explored through a range of Christian Jewish Greek and secular thinkers This development re envisages the idea of redemption away from the Augustinian view that time is what we need to be rescued from and towards the idea that time itself might save us from all that is destructive and tyrannical in time s rule over human life Books Abroad ,1929
