Das Geisterhaus:

Das Geisterhaus Isabel Allende, 1984 Die Autorin llende Isabel How Is World Literature Made? Gesine Müller, 2021-11-22 The debate over the concept of world literature which has been taking place with renewed intensity over the last twenty years is tightly bound up with the issues of global interconnectedness in a polycentric world Most recently critiques of globalization related conceptualizations in particular have made themselves heard to what extent is the concept of world literature too closely connected with the political and economic dynamics of globalization Such questions cannot be answered simply through theoretical debate The material side of the production of world literature must therefore be more strongly integrated into the conversation than it has been Using the example of Latin American literatures this volume demonstrates the concrete construction processes of world literature To that purpose archival materials have been analyzed here notes travel reports and correspondence between publishers and authors The Latin American examples provide particularly rich information about the processes of institutionalization in the Western world as well as new perspectives for a contemporary mapping of world literature beyond the established dynamics of canonization Radical Relationships Alison Clark Efford, Viktorija Bilic, 2021-09-01 This collection of intimate letters reveals the remarkable radicalism personal and political of Mathilde Franziska Anneke Anneke first became a well known feminist and democrat in Prussia earning notoriety for divorcing her first husband and fighting in the German Revolutions of 1848 1849 After moving to the United States she became a noted proponent of woman suffrage working with Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B Anthony Like many other refugees of the German revolutions Anneke was deeply involved in the Civil War Radical Relationships focuses on the years 1859 1865 which encompassed not only the war but also Anneke s intense romantic friendship with Yankee abolitionist Mary Booth Over the course of seven years Anneke supported Mary through her husband s trial for rape When Sherman Booth was later imprisoned for his abolitionist activity Anneke conspired to spring him from jail The two women then moved with three of their children to Zurich Switzerland where they collaborated on antislavery fiction and mixed with leading European radicals such as Ferdinand Lassalle From Europe they followed the fate of German born soldiers in the Union army including Anneke s husband Fritz and his court martial Throughout her career Anneke s intimate relationships informed her politics and sustained her activism Her correspondence with Fritz and Mary Booth provides fresh perspectives on the transnational dimensions of the Civil War and gender and sexuality Catalogue of the Public Library of the Polytechnic Society of Kentucky, 1880 Polytechnic Society of Kentucky, Louisville.
