JIM WAYNE MILLER

Brier His Poems

Hannah Bryant Hazeltine

Brier His Poems:

Brier, His Book Jim Wayne Miller, 1988 The Brier Poems Jim Wayne Miller, 2025-01-15 Published in 1997 by Gnomon Press Jim Wayne Miller's The Brier Poems published posthumously is a selection of poetry from The Mountains Have Come Closer where the Brier figure first emerged and Brier His Book along with additional poems not published in previous volumes. It celebrates the Appalachian region and its people through The Brier, the enlightened Appalachian who laments what is happening to the world that nurtured him. Through vivid imagery and rich language, Miller explores themes of identity and tradition and the connection between the land and its inhabitants. The poems capture the spirit and resilience of Appalachian culture, blending personal reflection with social commentary. Miller's work highlights the beauty and complexity of life in the mountains, offering a voice to the often overlooked experiences of rural Appalachia.

Six Poets from the Mountain South John Lang, 2010-04-20 In the most extensive work to date on major poets from the Mountain South, John Lang explores the pervasive religious and spiritual concerns of many of the Mountain South's finest writers, including Fred Chappell, Robert Morgan, Jeff Daniel, Marion Kathryn Stripling Byer, Jim Wayne Miller, and Charles Wright. He employs close readings of the poets' work and relates it to British and American Romanticism, as well as contemporary eco-theology and eco-criticism, creating the most ambitious and searching foray yet into the worlds of these renowned post-World War II Appalachian poets.

Every Leaf a Mirror Morris Allen Grubbs, Mary Ellen Miller, 2014-10-28 Jim Wayne Miller (1936-1996) was a prolific writer, a revered teacher and scholar, and a pioneer in the field of Appalachian studies. During his thirty-three year tenure at Western Kentucky University, he helped build programs in the discipline in Kentucky, Tennessee, and Ohio and worked tirelessly to promote regional voices by presenting the work of others as often as he did his own. An innovative poet, essayist, and short story writer, Miller was one of the founding fathers and animating spirits of the Appalachian Renaissance. In Every Leaf a Mirror, Morris Allen Grubbs and Mary Ellen Miller have gathered essential selections from the beloved author's oeuvre. Highlights from the volume include touchstone poems, seminal articles, a rare autobiographical essay, a commencement address, and an excerpt from the previously unpublished short story Truth and Fiction. Revealing the scope and significance of Miller's contributions as an artist and cultural scholar, this reader captures the excitement that surrounded the birth of modern Appalachian literature. With commentary by Mary Ellen Miller, an introduction from well-known author Robert Morgan, and an afterword by the notable Silas House, Every Leaf a Mirror provides an unprecedentedly intimate look at Miller's writing. This long overdue collection not only celebrates the life of this revered ambassador of Appalachian literature and culture but also introduces a new generation of readers to his work.

Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape, past and present, this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon. As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions, southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures, a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here. Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia, this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature, theoretical categories such as regionalism, the southern gothic, and agrarianism, and themes in southern writing such as food, religion, and sexuality. Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries, which introduce southern novelists, playwrights, poets, and critics. Special attention is given to contemporary writers and other individuals who have not been widely covered in previous scholarship.
