History, ICT and Learning in the Secondary School Terry Haydn,Christine Counsell,2003 This is a practical guide for teachers who wish to improve the quality of teaching and learning in history by using ICT

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Echoing Events Tina van der Vlies,2022-12-12 Echoing Events questions the perpetuation actualization and canonization of national narratives in English and Dutch history textbooks wide reaching media that tendentially inspire a sense of meaning memory and thus also identity

The longitudinal study begins in the 1920s when the League of Nations launched several initiatives to reduce strong nationalistic visions in textbooks and ends in the new millennium with the revival of national narratives in both countries. The analysis shows how and why textbook authors have narrated different histories which vary in terms of context, epoch and place as echoing events by using recurring plots and the same combinations of historical analogies. This innovative and original study thus investigates from a new angle the resistance of national narratives to change. New Worlds for Old John D.
