Hodge, 2007-11-30 In 1800 Europeans governed about one third of the world s land surface by the start of World War I in 1914 Europeans had imposed some form of political or economic ascendancy on over 80 percent of the globe The basic structure of global and European politics in the twentieth century was fashioned in the previous century out of the clash of competing imperial interests and the effects both beneficial and harmful of the imperial powers on the societies they dominated This encyclopedia offers current detailed information on the major world powers and their global empires as well as on the people events ideas and movements both European and non European that shaped the Age of Imperialism

The Discursive Construction of Southeast Asia in 19th Century Colonial-Capitalist Discourse Farish A. Noor, 2025-10-01 The nations of Southeast Asia today are rapidly integrating economically and politically but that integration is also counterbalanced by forces ranging from hyper nationalism to disputes over cultural ownership throughout the region Those forces Farish A Noor argues in this book have their roots in the region s failure to come to a critical understanding of how current national and cultural identities in the region came about To remedy that Noor offers a close account of the construction of Southeast Asia in the nineteenth century by the forces of capitalism and imperialism and shows how that construct remains a potent aspect of political economic and cultural disputes today

Sir Stamford Raffles And Some Of His Friends And Contemporaries: A Memoir Of The Founder Of Singapore John Bastin, 2019-03-29 This book written by Dr John Bastin a leading authority on the study of Sir Stamford Raffles offers an alternative biographical account of Raffles as seen through his relationship with some of his closest friends and contemporaries The people featured include the naturalists Joseph Arnold Thomas Horsfield and Nathaniel Wallich who received support from Raffles in carrying on their scientific research and the orientalist John Leyden who influenced Raffles s study of Malay and Malay customs Examining Raffles and his social circle presents an original perspective of the man and of the colonial world in which he lived and his correspondence with his friends and scientific colleagues reflects his attitude and opinions on a range of issues including his desire to extend the benefits of education The book is a highly original contribution to the study of Raffles in the bicentenary year of his founding of Singapore

THE LONG SHADOW OF THE 19TH CENTURY Farish A. Noor, Stamford Raffles James Brooke John Crawfurd and Anna Leonowens were some of those who came from Europe or the United States to Southeast Asia in the nineteenth century and then wrote about what they saw

Their writings deserve to be read now for what they truly were Not objective accounts of a Southeast Asia frozen in imperial time but rather as culturally myopic and perspectivist works that betray the subject positions of the authors themselves Reading them would allow us to write the history of the East West encounter through critical lenses that demonstrate the workings of power knowledge in the elaborate war economy of racialised colonial capitalism Many of the tropes used by these colonial era scholars and travellers such as the indolence or savagery of the native population are still very much in use today which means we still live in the long shadow of the 19th century Matahari Books Republicanism, Communism, Islam John T. Sidel, 2021-05-15 In Republicanism Communism Islam John T Sidel provides an alternate vantage point for understanding the variegated forms and trajectories of revolution across the Philippines Indonesia and Vietnam a perspective that is de nationalized internationalized and transnationalized Sidel positions this new vantage point against the conventional framing of revolutions in modern Southeast Asian history in terms of a nationalist template on the one hand and distinctive local cultures and forms of consciousness on the other Sidel s comparative analysis shows how in very different decisive and often surprising ways the Philippine Indonesian and Vietnamese revolutions were informed enabled and impelled by diverse cosmopolitan connections and international conjunctures Sidel addresses the role of Freemasonry in the making of the Philippine revolution the importance of Communism and Islam in Indonesia s Revolusi and the influence that shifting political currents in China and anticolonial movements in Africa had on Vietnamese revolutionaries Through this assessment Republicanism Communism and Islam tracks how these forces rather than nationalism per se shaped the forms of these revolutions the ways in which they unfolded and the legacies which they left in their wakes Periodica Islamica ,1993 Victorian Periodicals Review ,1994 The Philippine Revolution of 1896 Asociación Española de Estudios del Pacífico.
