101 Worlds Classics:

The 101 World's Classics Charles Gray Shaw, 1940 The 101 World's Classics. [An Anthology of Extracts.] Edited by C.G. Shaw Charles Gray SHAW, 1937 The Best of the World's Classics (Vol.1-10) Henry Cabot Lodge, 2023-12-13

In The Best of the World's Classics Vol 1-10 Henry Cabot Lodge curates a sweeping anthology that encapsulates the literary giants and pivotal texts from diverse cultures and historical epochs. Each volume showcases Lodge's meticulous selection and thoughtful organization, presenting readers with an engaging blend of prose, poetry, and philosophical musings that reflect the depth and richness of the human experience. The literary style is characterized by clarity and eloquence, paying homage to the original authors while making classical works accessible to contemporary audiences. This anthology contextualizes the selected pieces within their respective literary traditions, offering insights into their historical significance and cultural impact. Henry Cabot Lodge was an American statesman, historian, and prolific author whose intellectual pursuits were informed by his deep understanding of literature and history. His biography of Benjamin Franklin and work on the American Revolution demonstrate his fascination with the interplay between historical events and literary expression. Lodge's passion for classical literature likely stemmed from his broad academic background and his commitment to fostering a greater appreciation for timeless works among a modern readership. The Best of the World's Classics is an indispensable resource for literature enthusiasts and students alike, inviting readers to engage with the foundational texts that have shaped global thought. Whether delving into the epics of antiquity or the prose of the Enlightenment, readers will find a treasure trove of wisdom and inspiration that remains relevant in today's world.

The Best of the World's Classics (All 10 Volumes) Henry Cabot Lodge, 2020-12-17. Musaicum Books presents this meticulously edited and formatted selection of the greatest works of world literature from ancient Greece and Rome to Modern American literature. Volume I: Greece; Volume II: Rome; Volume III: Great Britain and Ireland I; Volume IV: Great Britain and Ireland II; Volume V: Great Britain and Ireland III; Volume VI: Great Britain and Ireland IV; Volume VII: Continental Europe I; Volume VIII: Continental Europe II; Volume IX: America I; Volume X: America II.

The Classical World, 1910 Asian Classics on the Victorian Bookshelf Alexander Bubb, 2023-03-14

The interest among Victorian readers in classical literature from Asia has been greatly underestimated. The popularity of the Arabian Nights and the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam is well documented. Yet this was also an era in which freethinkers consulted the Quran, in which schoolchildren were given abridgements of the Ramayana to read, in which names like Kalidasa and Firdusi were carved on the facades of public libraries, and in which women's book clubs discussed Japanese poetry. But for the most part, such readers were not consulting the specialist publications of scholarly orientalists. What then were the translations that catalysed these intercultural encounters? Based on a unique methodology marrying translation theory with empirical techniques developed by historians of reading, this book shines light for the first time on the numerous amateur translators or popularizers who were responsible for making these texts accessible and disseminating them to the Victorian general readership Asian Classics on the Victorian Bookshelf explains the process whereby popular translations were written published distributed to bookshops and libraries and ultimately consumed by readers It uses the working papers and correspondence of popularizers to demonstrate their techniques and motivations while the responses of contemporary readers are traced through the pencil marginalia they left behind in dozens of original copies In spite of their typically limited knowledge of source languages Asian Classics argues that popularizers produced versions more respectful of the complexity cultural difference and fundamental untranslatability of Asian texts than the professional orientalists whose work they were often adapting The responses of their readers likewise frequently deviated from interpretive norms and it is proposed that this combination of eccentric translators and unorthodox readers triggered flights of translation whereby historical individuals can be seen to escape the hegemony of orientalist forms of knowledge
