At Days End:

At Days Close A. Roger Ekirch, 2006-10-17 Beautifully illuminated by a color insert and with black and white illustrations throughout this compelling narrative of night is panoramic in scope yet fashioned on an intimate scale and enriched by personal stories

Liberia's Dearest Ends Martina Nicolls, 2012-12-01 Liberia's Dearest Ends is a novel based on fact. It is about trust and truth: what or whom to trust and when. Truth in Liberia during the civil war had become distorted, embellished, abandoned, and abused out of bravado, fear, shame, or self-protection. No one seemed to know the difference between truth and rumor anymore. The novel is set in Liberia from 2004 to 2012, after the declaration of peace and the end of two protracted and bloody civil wars (December 1989-1997 and 1999-2003). The country is recovering economically and mentally through government stabilization and services, recording Truth and Reconciliation statements of human rights violations, and the criminal trial of former president Charles Taylor. Jorja Himmermann, an international aid worker, monitors the resurgence of education programs, peace building, community development, child labor, and the protection of former child soldiers. As the country's past truths are revealed, Jorja seeks her own truths: of elusive pygmy hippos, the burns on her driver's body, the extradition of her British friend, and her relationship with an enigmatic Moroccan journalist. It reveals whom Jorja can really trust.

Children's Daily Prayer 2019-2020 Margaret Burk, Vivian E. Williams, This annual helps to guide children in schools and religious education in a daily service of communal prayer that follows the pattern of the Church's Morning Prayer. Scripture readings from the evangelist for the year have been selected to help children become familiar with important Scripture stories and themes. In addition, there are prayers for before meals and at the end of the day, as well as prayer services for the liturgical seasons and special feasts, and reproducible prayer services for children to take home to their families to celebrate occasions when they are not in school.

Simulation in Computational Finance and Economics: Tools and Emerging Applications Alexandrova-Kabadjova, Biliana, Martinez-Jaramillo, Serafin, Garcia-Almanza, Alma Lilia, Tsang, Edward, 2012-08-31 Simulation has become a tool difficult to substitute in many scientific areas like manufacturing, medicine, telecommunications, games, etc. Finance is one of such areas where simulation is a commonly used tool. For example, we can find Monte Carlo simulation in many financial applications like market risk analysis, portfolio optimization, credit risk-related applications, etc. Simulation in Computational Finance and Economics: Tools and Emerging Applications presents a thorough collection of works covering several rich and highly productive areas of research, including Risk Management, Agent-Based Simulation, and Payment Methods and Systems, topics that have found new motivations after the strong recession experienced in the last few years. Despite the fact that simulation is widely accepted as a prominent tool, dealing with a simulation-based project requires specific management abilities of the researchers. Economic researchers will find an excellent reference to introduce them to the computational simulation models. The works presented in this book can be used as an inspiration for economic researchers interested in creating their own computational models in their respective
