The Closing of the Gates Rabbi Lawrence A. Hoffman, PhD,2018-05-29 Nilah the closing of the gates is in many ways the most anticipated worship service in the entire Jewish calendar Coming at the end of the 24 hour fast that characterizes Yom Kippur The Day of Atonement it symbolizes the days of old when the gates of the ancient Temple closed at last and with them the last chance for prayers of atonement and reconciliation with God and with others Nowadays the synagogue service that replaced the Temple cult marks the occasion with heightened fervor the only time all year when the gates of the ark that houses the Torah scroll remain open throughout the service telltale melodies accompany the occasion a final blast of the shofar the ram s horn symbolizes the end of the fast and the new beginning that follows special prayers celebrate the human capacity to create a life that matters beyond our own mortality and the presence of God who reaches out a hand to invite us into the new Jewish year that Nilah s final shofar blast inaugurates All of this is the topic for volume eight in Prayers of Awe the series devoted to exploring the depth of the Jewish High Holy Days As with prior volumes this one too comes with introductory essays on the history theology and deeper meaning behind the prayer experience It then assembles some 40 short and accessible essays designed to unlock the mystery and depth of the occasion Authors come from all walks of life clergy and laypeople scholars and artists men and women across the generations and from seven countries Canada Australia Germany France Israel the UK and USA What music appreciation is to classical music this series on prayer is to Jewish worship This volume in particular explores Judaism s timeless message of divine purpose and the ongoing search for meaning in a world of human frailty but also promise The Palace Gates Gopal Mittal,1960 The Palace Gates ,1994 The Balawat Gates of Ashurnasirpal II Richard David Barnett,2008 This important volume publishes in full for the first time two sets of highly elaborate Neo Assyrian bronze gate decorations from the site of Balawat ancient Imgur Enlil in northern Iraq One set discovered by Hormuzd Rassam on a British Museum expedition in 1878 is now on permanent display in London The other set found by Sir Max Mallowan in 1956 was on display in the Mosul Museum in Iraq after conservation and mounting at the British Museum The Mosul gates were largely looted and lost following the invasion of Iraq in 2003 This book includes an account of their loss and provides the only complete record of their appearance and excavation The Balawat gates were made in the reign of King Ashurnasirpal II 883 859 BC The figurative scenes on the 32 bands of chased and embossed bronze sometimes supported by cuneiform inscriptions provide a wealth of historical and art historical information All this material is now made publicly available in the form of a final excavation report and catalogue Bronze Reliefs from the Gates of Shalmaneser, King of Assyria, B.C. 860-825 British Museum.
