At the Seaside. [Stories, Poems, and Pictures.] Seaside, 1884 At the Seaside. [A Book for Children.] SEASIDE., 1884 The role of the seaside in "Bhaji on the Beach" and "Quadrophenia" Marc Walsh, 2016-11-15 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Other grade A The Open University course English Literature language English abstract In this essay I will discuss the way a trip to the sea is represented in Quadrophenia the album by The Who with the accompanying short story as well as the non musical film of the same name and in Gurinder Chadha s film Bhaji on the Beach I will argue that while the seaside of the story music and the two films may be one that appeals to the characters because of its potential for a collective enjoyable experience that can blur individual identities and anxieties in fact the seaside that is represented produces conflict and may serve to challenge or renew identities Race, Place and the Seaside Daniel Burdsey, 2016-08-18 This is the first academic monograph to focus exclusively on issues of race ethnicity whiteness and multiculturalism at the English seaside The book calls for acknowledgement of the racialised nature of this environment and proposes that its distinctive spaces places traditions and narratives should be included within broader analyses of race in contemporary Britain Introducing the concept of coastal liquidity to explain shifting ethno racial demographics migratory politics and spatial dynamics at the edge of the sea along with the relative immobilities of the minority ethnic communities who move and reside there the author provides a relational exploration of seaside experiences both as a locus of racialised categorisation exclusion and subjugation and one of resistance conviviality and intercultural exchange Combining theoretical insight and empirical fieldwork the book disrupts dominant thinking that fixes ontologically minority ethnic bodies to urban spaces and overcomes their erasure and silencing from the seaside landscapes of the popular imagination At the Beach Jean-Didier Urbain, 2003 Around the world when people think of vacation it s the beach they want even when long distances must be traversed the seashore is the place to escape the rigors of modern life How did this come to be and what does our ongoing love affair with the beach mean How do shore vacations differ from traditional tourism and what does this tell us about our dreams and fears In At the Beach Jean Didier Urbain offers witty and insightful answers to these questions Designing the Seaside Fred Gray, 2006 In Designing the Seaside Fred Gray provides a history of seaside architecture from the 18th century to the present day investigating leisure entertainment taste fashion and gender and shows how the seaside even became a hotbed for moral and sexual issues from the early use of bathing machines to twentieth century beauty pageants and naturist groups He relates the evolution of resort architecture to sweeping changes in how seaside nature was experienced and used by holidaymakers The book also traces the history of the coastal resort with examples ranging from Regency Sidmouth to Victorian Scarborough and early 20th century Morecambe as well as assessing seaside developments in the USA and Continental Europe from Coney Island and Santa Barbara to Nice and Trouville Featuring many colourful informative and often entertaining photographs drawings

guidebook illustrations postcards and publicity posters from resorts around the world Designing the Seaside is a thoroughly readable as well as a visually fascinating account of changing attitudes to holidaymaking and its setting BOOK JACKET

Modernism at the Beach Hannah Freed-Thall, 2023-03-07 Winner 2024 MSA Book Prize Modernist Studies Association At the beach bodies converge with the elements and strange treasures come to light Departing from the conventional association of modernism with the city this book makes a case for the coastal zone as a surprisingly generative setting for twentieth century literature and art An unruly and elusive confluence of human and more than human forces the seashore is also a space of performance a stage for loosely scripted improvisatory forms of embodiment and togetherness The beach Hannah Freed Thall argues was to the modernist imagination what mountains were to Romanticism a space not merely of anthropogenic conquest but of vital elemental and creaturely connection With an eye to the peripheries of capitalist leisure Freed Thall recasts familiar seaside practices including tide pooling beachcombing gambling and sunbathing as radical experiments in perception and sociability Close readings of works by Marcel Proust Virginia Woolf Claude McKay Samuel Beckett Rachel Carson and Gordon Matta Clark among others explore the modernist beach as a queer refuge a precarious commons a scene of collective exhaustion and endurance and a visionary threshold at the end of the world Interweaving environmental humanities queer and feminist theory and cultural history Modernism at the Beach offers new ways of understanding twentieth century literature and its relation to ecological thought Island nights' entertainments, consisting of The beach of Falesá, The bottle imp.
