

Sociolinguistics and teaching (importance)

Language as conventional system acquired by individuals in social contact or a social phenomenon of verbal interaction.

Language as a distinctive element of communication presenting linguistics varieties, which are geographical, historical, social and culturally determined.

Relevant in the process of teaching foreign languages as a social adjustment factor.

Language variations according to gender, age, ethnicity, status, and so on.

The notion of 'World Englishes' on the basis of language regional variations.

Main emphasis on communication and intelligibility rather than a 'perfect native-like pronunciation'.
