

Commercial Dispute Processing and Japan

By Yasuhiro Sato

FORTHCOMING PUBLICATION

Under globalization, the resolution of commercial disputes across national borders is becoming ever greater importance. This ground-breaking study explores a range of possible approaches, both within the established legal infrastructure, and through alternative, not only arbitration, but also non-confrontational means such as negotiation and mediation/conciliation.

The Japanese experience in dispute processing is taken as a means of exploring the ways in which international harmonization efforts (such as the UNCITRAL Model Law) impact on individual nations. As an Asian nation which has adopted and adapted a variety of Western practices under modernisation and democratisation, Japan is in a unique position to offer a balanced global example – a model for a more comprehensive approach to disputes as an integrated multi-layered system.

The book will be of interest to the scholar and practitioner of trans-national/cultural commercial dispute processing as well as those who are involved in the law reform/technical cooperation.
