Clash In The Baltic:

The Future a Memory: The Cold War and Intelligence Services - Aspects Heiner Timmermann, 2013 This book presents an overview about the activities of intelligence services and their role during the Cold War period Contributions from a wide range of disciplines by historians political scientists journalists legal experts former officers of secret services and former military men from various countries around the world discuss the services in the US Germany Korea the Caribbean Sea the Baltic Russia and Europe including the famous US counter intelligence Venona project Series Politics and Modern History Politik und Moderne Geschichte Vol 18 Scribner's Monthly Josiah Gilbert Holland, Richard Watson Gilder, 1919

Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People, 1920 Clash of Fleets Vincent O'Hara, Leonard R Heinz, 2017-04-15 Clash of Fleets is an operational history that records every naval engagement fought between major surface warships during World War I Much more than a catalog of combat facts Clash of Fleets explores why battles occurred how the different navies fought and how combat advanced doctrine and affected the development and application of technology The result is a holistic overview of the war at sea as it affected all nations and all theaters of war A work of this scope is unprecedented Organized into seven chapters the authors first introduce the technology weapons ships and the doctrine that governed naval warfare in 1914 The next five chapters explore each year of the war and are subdivided into sections corresponding to major geographic areas This arrangement allows the massive sweep of action to be presented in a structured and easy to follow format that includes engagements fought by the Austro Hungarian British French German Ottoman and Russian Navies in the Adriatic Aegean Baltic Black Mediterranean and North Seas as well as the Atlantic India and Pacific Oceans The role of surface combat in the Great War is analyzed and these actions are compared to major naval wars before and after In addition to providing detailed descriptions of actions in their historical perspectives O Hara and Heinz advance several themes including the notion that World War I was a war of navies as much as a war of armies They explain that surface combat had a major impact on all aspects of the naval war and on the course of the war in general Finally Clash of Fleets illustrates that systems developed in peace do not always work as expected in war that some are not used as anticipated and that others became unexpectedly important There is much for today's naval professional to consider in the naval conflict that occurred a century ago The House of Hemp and Butter Kevin C. O'Connor, 2019-11-15 Founded as an ecclesiastical center trading hub and intended capital of a feudal state Riga was Old Livonia's greatest city and its indispensable port Because the city was situated in what was initially remote and inhospitable territory surrounded by pagans and coveted by regional powers like Poland Sweden and Muscovy it was also a fortress encased by a wall The House of Hemp and Butter begins in the twelfth century with the arrival to the eastern Baltic of German priests traders and knights who conquered and converted the indigenous tribes and assumed mastery over their lands It ends in 1710 with an account of the greatest war Livonia had ever seen one that was accompanied by mass starvation a terrible epidemic and a flood of nearly biblical proportions that devastated the city and left its survivors in misery Readers will learn about Riga s people merchants and clerics craftsmen and builders porters and day laborers about its structures and spaces its internal conflicts and its unrelenting struggle to maintain its independence against outside threats The House of Hemp and Butter is an indispensable guide to a quintessentially European city located in one of the continent s more remote corners Century Illustrated Monthly Magazine ... ,1920 Socioeconomic Outcomes of the Global Financial Crisis Ulrike Schuerkens,2012 This book originates from a comparative research project involving extensive collection and analysis of primary and secondary materials scholarly literature statistical data and interviews with key actors on socioeconomic outcomes of the global financial crisis in all major world regions during the last years Offering analytical and comparative insights at the global level as well as an assessment of the overall social globalization phenomenon this book will be useful for scholars students NGOs and policy makers League of Nations News ,1928 Military Diasporas Georg Christ,Patrick Sanger,Mike Carr,2022-11-30 Military Diasporas proposes a new research approach to analyse the role of foreign military personnel as composite and partly imagined para ethnic groups These groups not only buttressed a state or empire s military might but crucially connected policed and administered parts of realms as a transcultural and transimperial class while representing the polity s universal or at least cosmopolitan aspirations at court or on diplomatic and military missions Case studies of foreign militaries with a focus on their diasporic elements include the Achaemenid Empire Ptolemaic Egypt and the Roman Empire in the ancient world These are followed by chapters on the Sassanid and Islamic occupation of Egypt Byzantium the Latin Aegean Catalan Company to Iberian Christian noblemen serving North African Islamic rulers Mamluks and Italian Stradiots followed by chapters on military diasporas in Hungary the Teutonic Order including the Sword Brethren and the Swiss military The volume thus covers a broad band of military diasporic experiences and highlights aspects of their role in the building of state and empire from Antiquity to the late Middle Ages and from Persia via Egypt to the Baltic With a broad chronological and geographic range this volume is the ideal resource for upper level undergraduates postgraduates and scholars interested in the history of war and warfare from Antiquity to the sixteenth century League of Nations Herald William Harrison Short,Charles Millington,Charles C.
