The Rhetoric of Character in Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2002-01-01 Now available in paperback Until now there was no theoretical research of character in children's fiction and very few comprehensive theoretical studies of literary characters in general In her latest intellectual foray the author of From Mythic to Linear ponders the art of characterization Through a variety of critical perspectives she uncovers the essential differences between story what we are told and discourse how we are told and carefully distinguishes between how these are employed in children's fiction and in general fiction Yet another masterful work by a leading figure in contemporary criticism

Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b/w illustrations

Aesthetic Approaches to Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05-12 As undergraduate and graduate courses in children's literature become more established and numerous there is an intense need for a textbook that offers aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children's literature This work fills that void by providing students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e.g. author genre character Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e g semiotics feminist psychoanalytic an example of its application to a literary text a number of activities study questions reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations

Children's Literature in Primary Schools David Waugh, Sally Neaum, Rosemary Waugh, 2016-07-15 How can you help children to develop a love of reading and books Which books are the best ones to use in primary teaching How do you make the most of children s literature in teaching across the curriculum Trainee and experienced primary school teachers need an advanced knowledge of children s literature This is your guide to the range of and scope of children s literature for the primary classroom Through the exploration of different genres it covers a wide range of literature and helps you to consider what we mean by literature Case studies that model good practice are included with suggestions for practical activities using literature to enhance teaching across the curriculum Throughout book recommendations show how specific texts can be used for teaching in exciting and innovative ways What s new to this edition updated in line with the new Primary National Curriculum includes new content on supporting children for whom English is an Additional Language an extensive list of book recommendations for primary teaching how to get more out of classic texts introduces new texts and new children s authors

Children's Literature: Classic Texts and Contemporary Trends Heather Montgomery, Nicola J. Watson, 2009-08-26 Provides students and teachers of Children s Literature with access to high quality critical material on the most widely studied classic and contemporary children s books

Children's Literature Diana Mitchell, Pamela Waterbury, Rose Casement, 2003 Children s Literature An Invitation to the World is written and organized in a manner that engages the readers and that will instill confidence in teachers when selecting and using literature in their teaching Readers are asked to take a world view of literature what it is how to recognize one s own how to recognize an author s and encouraged to see children s literature through a lens that includes people not like themselves The book tackles tough issues such as gender and racial bias and how they can be insidiously promoted in literature No other book on the market engages readers more than this one Rather than just presenting topics the book asks What can we learn from them In addition the first person narrative involves readers in the discussion rather than simply presenting content to them Elementary and middle school teachers curriculum developers and anyone interested in children s literature
