P. Lovecraft, 2014-12-13 The Doom That Came to Sarnath is a story fragment by American horror fiction writer H P Lovecraft Howard Phillips Lovecraft August 20 1890 March 15 1937 known as H P Lovecraft was an American author who achieved posthumous fame through his influential works of horror fiction Virtually unknown and only published in pulp magazines before he died in poverty he is now regarded as one of the most significant 20th century authors in his genre Lovecraft was born in Providence Rhode Island where he spent most of his life His father was confined to a mental institution when Lovecraft was three years old His grandfather a wealthy businessman enjoyed storytelling and was an early influence Intellectually precocious but sensitive Lovecraft began composing rudimentary horror tales by the age of eight but suffered from overwhelming feelings of anxiety He encountered problems with classmates in school and was kept at home by his highly strung and overbearing mother for illnesses that may have been psychosomatic In high school Lovecraft was able to better connect with his peers and form friendships He also involved neighborhood children in elaborate make believe projects only regretfully ceasing the activity at seventeen years old Despite leaving school in 1908 without graduating he found mathematics particularly difficult Lovecraft had developed a formidable knowledge of his favored subjects such as history linguistics chemistry and astronomy Although he seems to have had some social life attending meetings of a club for local young men Lovecraft in early adulthood was established in a reclusive nightbird lifestyle without occupation or pursuit of romantic adventures In 1913 his conduct of a long running controversy in the letters page of a story magazine led to his being invited to participate in an amateur journalism association Encouraged he started circulating his stories he was 31 at the time of his first publication in a professional magazine Lovecraft contracted a marriage to an older woman he had met at an association conference By age 34 he was a regular contributor to newly founded Weird Tales magazine he turned down an offer of the editorship Lovecraft returned to Providence from New York in 1926 and over the next nine months he produced some of his most celebrated tales including The Call of Cthulhu canonical to the Cthulhu Mythos Never able to support himself from earnings as author and editor Lovecraft saw commercial success increasingly elude him in this latter period partly because he lacked the confidence and drive to promote himself He subsisted in progressively straitened circumstances in his last years an inheritance was completely spent by the time he died at the age of 46 A Subtler Magick S. T.

Joshi,1996-12-01 He was the premier writer of horror fiction in the first half of the 20th Century perhaps the major American practitioner of the art between the time of Edgar Allan Poe and Stephen King Born into an upper middle class family in Providence Rhode Island Howard Phillips Lovecraft 1890 1937 had a lonely childhood but read voraciously from his earliest years He soon became interested in science and astronomy and began penning stories poetry and essays in great profusion publishing them himself when no other market was available The advent of Weird Tales in 1923 gave him a small outlet for his work and he attracted a large number of followers with whom he exchanged literally tens of thousands of letters many of them quite lengthy A number of these young correspondents eventually became professional writers and editors themselves Lovecraft s fame began spreading beyond fandom with the publication of his first significant collection The Outsider and Others in 1939 two years after his untimely death Book jacket Lovecraft's The Doom That Came To Sarnath J Scott

There is in the land of Mnar a vast still lake that is fed by no stream and out of which no stream flows Ten thousand years ago there stood by its shore the mighty city of Sarnath but Sarnath stands there no more It is told that in the immemorial years when the world was young before ever the men of Sarnath came to the land of Mnar another city stood beside the lake the gray stone city of Ib which was old as the lake itself and peopled with beings not pleasing to behold Very odd and ugly were these beings as indeed are most beings of a world yet inchoate and rudely fashioned It is written on the brick cylinders of Kadatheron that the beings of Ib were in hue as green as the lake and the mists that rise above it that they had bulging eyes pouting flabby lips and curious ears and were without voice It is also written that they descended one night from the moon in a mist they and the vast still lake and gray stone city Ib However this may be it is certain that they worshipped a sea green stone idol chiseled in the likeness of Bokrug the great water lizard before which they danced horribly when the moon was gibbous The Doom that came to Sarnath H.P.
