Dr. Denmark Said It!: Advice for Mothers from America's Most Experienced Pediatrician Madia L. Bowman, 2002-03 Who in the world knows what's best for my baby? You do, says Dr. Leila Denmark. If mothers would just use their brains and take responsibility, they would know what to do for their children. In our fast-changing culture, moms can become thoroughly confused and frustrated by conflicting child care advice. In this book, the legendary 103-year-old pediatrician with a seventy-four-year practice guides a mother of ten with time-tested common sense. Book jacket      Dr. Denmark Said It! Madia Bowman, 1998      A Season for New Beginnings Susan Willis Updegraff, 2016-06-10 It is August 2000 and Caroline Winthrop is still passionate about helping women and children who are victims of domestic violence. Although her nonprofit foundation is now a Georgia state agency, Caroline continues to be involved with fundraising and occasionally in the operation of the home. As she helps yet another woman progress through the New Beginnings program, Caroline has no idea that in the future she will use the information to make profound changes to Georgia laws. As Caroline's passion takes on a new level of commitment and launches her into unfamiliar territory, her husband Garrett is presented with the best career opportunity of his life. But as Garrett tackles his latest challenge and Caroline's mother and their two college-age children face their own issues, Caroline and Garrett find they have little time to slow down. Still, she and Garrett look forward to the future when they hope to enjoy life together. But just as they begin to make plans for their retirement, tragedy strikes and changes everything. In this continuing historical tale, a wealthy Southern matriarch and her family members each embark on a quest to find a new beginning where they discover that change is the only certainty in life.      Georgia's Remarkable Women Sara Hines Martin, 2015-11-01 Georgia's Remarkable Women: Daughters, Wives, Sisters, and Mothers Who Shaped History recognizes the women who helped to shape the Peach State. Female teachers, writers, entrepreneurs, and artists from across the state are illuminated through short biographies and archival photographs and paintings. Setting their own standards and following their passions, they continue to inspire new generations with their achievements. Meet Rebecca Latimer Felton, the first woman to sit as a U.S. senator; Juliette Gordon Low, the resilient founder of the Girl Scouts; Sarah Freeman Clarke, a painter who dared to pursue art and literature as a career; Gertrude Ma Rainey, the Mother of the Blues whose voice transcended race and class; and Margaret Mitchell, author of the enduring tale of survival Gone with the Wind.      A Season for Living Susan Willis Updegraff, 2016-03-24 In the 1950s and 60s, living with family secrets was nearly mandatory for women in high society. Charlotte Wellington and her daughter Caroline are no exception. When Charlotte's husband John begins showing signs of alcoholism, Charlotte prays that she won't have to go through life with her husband as she had with her alcoholic father. She quickly makes John promise that he won't drink anymore. Unfortunately, it's a promise that John can't keep. As Caroline grows up watching her mother have accident after accident, she knows that she will never let a man treat her the way her father treats her mother But when tragedy strikes Charlotte and Caroline must pick up the pieces and put their lives back together As Caroline moves on to college life continues as she blossoms into womanhood Follow this mother and daughter through all seasons of life from birth and death to love and loss and dark family secrets over a period of fifty two years and learn how one family tries to make the best out of a tragic situation in A Season for Living Advisory Commission for the Protection and Welfare of Children and Young People League of Nations, League of Nations.
