Brame,2014-07-07 The consequences of folly seldom end with its originator said Lord Earle to his son Rely upon it Ronald if you were to take this most foolish and unadvisable step you would bring misery upon yourself and every one connected with you Listen to reason There is no reason in prejudice replied the young man haughtily You can not bring forward one valid reason against my marriage Despite his annoyance a smile broke over Lord Earle's grave face I can bring a thousand reasons if necessary he replied I grant everything you say Dora Thorne is very pretty but remember she is quite a rustic and unformed beauty and I almost doubt whether she can read or spell properly She is modest and good I grant and I never heard one syllable against her Ronald let me appeal to your better judgment are a moderate amount of rustic prettiness and shy modesty sufficient qualifications for your wife who will have to take your mother's place They are quite sufficient to satisfy me replied the young man You have others to consider said Lord Earle quickly I love her interrupted his son and again his father smiled We know what it means he said when boys of nineteen talk about love Believe me Ronald if I were to consent to your request you would be the first in after years to reproach me for weak compliance with your youthful folly You would not call it folly retorted Ronald his face flushing hotly if Dora were an heiress or the daughter of some Spare me a long discourse again interrupted Lord Earle You are quite right if the young girl in question belonged to your own station or even if she were near it that would be quite a different matter I am not annoyed that you have as you think fallen in love or that you wish to marry although you are young I am annoyed that you should dream of wishing to marry a simple rustic the daughter of my lodge keeper It is so supremely ridiculous that I can hardly treat the matter seriously It is serious enough for me returned his son with a long deep sigh If I do not marry Dora Thorne I shall never marry at all Better that than a mesalliance said Lord Earle shortly Dora Thorne George Eugene Crowder,1905 Dora Thorne Alice H.
