Dunleavy, 1991-02-20 In 1938 at an age when most men are long retired Douglas Hyde 1860 1949 was elected first president of modern Ireland The unanimous choice of delegates from all political factions he was no stranger to public life or to fame Until now however there has been no full scale biography of this important historical and literary figure Known as a tireless nationalist Hyde attracted attention on both sides of the Atlantic from a very early age He was hailed by Yeats as a source of the Irish Literary Renaissance earned international recognition for his contributions to the theory and methodology of folklore joined Lady Gregory W B Yeats George Moore and Edward Martyn in shaping an Irish theater and as president of the Gaelic League worked for twenty two years on behalf of Irish Ireland Yet in spite of these and other accomplishments Hyde remained an enigmatic figure throughout his life Why did he become an Irish nationalist Why were his two terms as Irish Free State senator so curiously passive Why when he had threatened it earlier did he oppose the use of physical force in 1916 How did he nevertheless retain the support of his countrymen and the trust and friendship of such a man as Eamon de Valera Douglas Hyde A Maker of Modern Ireland dispels for the first time the myths and misinformation that have obscured the private life of this extraordinary scholar and statesman

New Perspectives on Conflict and Ireland in the Nineteenth Century Paul Huddie, Cathal Billings, Arlene Crampsie, 2025-07-07 Conflict is a well trod theme in the study of nineteenth century Ireland and the Irish While this is especially clear in the more traditional fields of politics religion and the military conflict was equally manifest in every arena of Irish people s lives both in Ireland and abroad including in areas such as gender class culture and identity in domestic or personal spaces institutional life education and medicine Yet despite a broad and multi disciplinary historiography this is the first book to focus solely on this rich theme New Perspectives on Conflict and Ireland in the Nineteenth Century brings together a group of scholars based around the world and in multiple disciplines who engage with the manifestations representations and histories of conflict pertaining to Ireland and Irish people throughout the long nineteenth century

Murphy,2015-12-04 Hegemony and Fantasy in Irish Drama 1899 1949 offers a theoretically innovative reconsideration of drama produced in the Irish Renaissance as well as an engagement with non canonical drama in the under researched period 1926 1949

Douglas Hyde. (Irishmen of to-day). Diarmid Coffey,1917 Forgotten Patriot Brian Murphy,2016-09-01 It had been a busy few days for Adolf Hitler but Douglas Hyde had not slipped his mind On 25 June 1938 Douglas Hyde became the first President of Ireland His values stood in stark contrast to those of the continental dictator As a Protestant nationalist and a leading figure in the language revival he made the office an inclusive one and determined to be a president for all the people of Ireland He also played a highly significant but previously unheralded role in the state s policy of neutrality during the Second World War Hitler s fleeting fixation with Hyde was that the new presidency significantly diluted Ireland s bonds with the British Empire The accepted wisdom is that Hyde s transition to the presidency was a seamless process but new research shows it only came about on foot of a late political compromise He may have been a compromise candidate but with his non partisan background he was also an inspired choice Forgotten Patriot shows Hyde s considerable impact on the development and perception of the office of President of Ireland Irish Literature ,1904 The Shaping of Modern Ireland Eugenio Biagini,Daniel Mulhall,2016-02-01 Originally published in 1960 and edited by Conor Cruise O'Brien The Shaping of Modern Ireland was a seminal work surveying the lives of prominent early twentieth century figures who influenced Irish affairs in the years between the death of Charles Stewart Parnell in 1891 and the Easter Rising of 1916 The chapters were written by leading historians and commentators from the Ireland of the 1950s some of whom personally knew the subjects of their essays This volume draws its inspiration from that seminal work Written by some of today s leading figures from the world of Irish history politics journalism and the arts it revisits a crucial phase in the country s history one that culminated in the Easter Rising and the Revolution when everything changed utterly With chapters on men and women of the stature of Carson Connolly and Markievicz but also industrialists such as Guinness who contributed to shaping modern Ireland in the social and economic sphere this book offers an important contribution to the renewal of the debate on the country s history A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T.
