Biographical Dictionary of the Left Francis X. Gannon, 1973 The Family Letters of Victor and Meta Berger, 1894-1929 Michael E. Stevens, 2016-02-26 The Family Letters of Victor and Meta Berger provide an insider's view of congressional labor and party politics as well as a glimpse into the marriage and family life of a prominent Wisconsin couple Victor Berger helped create a well organized political machine in Milwaukee that engineered his election to the U S House of Representatives six times and controlled the mayor's office for almost 50 years His wife Meta an activist in her own right served as a member of the Milwaukee school board and of the University of Wisconsin Board of Regents and vigorously advocated on behalf of woman suffrage and peace Mixing commentary on public affairs with family news and love notes The Family Letters demonstrate how Victor and Meta were both interested observers as well as actors who sought to shape events in early twentieth century America The New Left and Labor in 1960s Peter B. Levy, 2024-04-22 It is a powerful story the relationship between the 1960s New Left and organized labor was summed up by hardhats confronting students and others over US involvement in Vietnam But the real story goes beyond the Love It or Leave It signs and melees involving blue collar types attacking protesters Peter B Levy challenges these images by exploring the complex relationship between the two groups Early in the 1960s the New Left and labor had cooperated to fight for civil rights and anti poverty programs But diverging opinions on the Vietnam War created a schism that divided these one time allies Levy shows how the war combined with the emergence of the black power movement and the blossoming of the counterculture drove a permanent wedge between the two sides and produced the polarization that remains to this day
