The Black Poets Dudley Randall, 1985-04-01 The claim of The Black Poets to being an anthology is that it presents the full range of Black American poetry from the slave songs to the present day It is important that folk poetry be included because it is the root and inspiration of later literary poetry Not only does this book present the full range of Black poetry but it presents most poets in depths and in some cases presents aspects of a poet neglected or overlooked before Gwendolyn Brooks is represented not only by poems on racial and domestic themes but is revealed as a writer of superb love lyrics Turning away from White models and returning to their roots has freed Black poets to create a new poetry This book records their progress from the Introduction by Dudley Randall Black Poets of the United States Jean Wagner, 1973 Traces the evolution of Afro American poetry highlighting individual poets up to the time of the Harlem Renaissance

Black Nature Camille T. Dungy,2009 Black Nature is the first anthology to focus on nature writing by African American poets a genre that until now has not commonly been counted as one in which African American poets have participated Black poets have a long tradition of incorporating treatments of the natural world into their work but it is often read as political historical or protest poetry anything but nature poetry This is particularly true when the definition of what constitutes nature writing is limited to work about the pastoral or the wild Camille T Dungy has selected 180 poems from 93 poets that provide unique perspectives on American social and literary history to broaden our concept of nature poetry and African American poetics This collection features major writers such as Phillis Wheatley Rita Dove Yusef Komunyakaa Gwendolyn Brooks Sterling Brown Robert Hayden Wanda Coleman Natasha Trethewey and Melvin B Tolson as well as newer talents such as Douglas Kearney Major Jackson and Janice Harrington Included are poets writing out of slavery Reconstruction the Harlem Renaissance the Black Arts Movement and late twentieth and early twenty first century African American poetic movements Black Nature brings to the fore a neglected and vital means of considering poetry by African Americans and nature related poetry as a whole A Friends Fund Publication

Into a Light Both Brilliant and Unseen Malin Pereira,2010-12-01 Malin

Pereira's collection of eight interviews with leading contemporary African American poets offers an in-depth look at the cultural and aesthetic perspectives of the post Black Arts Movement generation. This volume includes unpublished interviews Pereira conducted with Wanda Coleman, Yusef Komunyakaa, Thylas Moss, Harryette Mullen, Cornelius Eady, and Elizabeth Alexander, as well as conversations with Rita Dove and Cyrus Cassells, previously in print. Largely published since 1980, each of these poets has at least four books. Their influence on new generations of poets has been wide-reaching. The work of this group, says Pereira, is a departure from the previous generation's proscriptive manifestos in favor of more inclusive voices, perspectives, and techniques. Although these poets reject a rigid adherence to a specific black aesthetic, their work just as effectively probes racism, stereotyping, and racial politics. Unlike Amiri Baraka's claim in Home that he becomes blacker and blacker, positioning race as a defining essence, these poets imagine a plurality of ideas about the relationship between blackness and black poetry. They question the idea of an established literary canon defining black literature. For these poets, Pereira says, the idea of home is found both in black poetry circles and in the wider transnational community of literature.

A Sarah Mills Hodge Foundation Publication Black Poets Reading Black Poets Reading Inc, 1970 Nine Black Poets Robert Baird Shuman, 1968 Heroism in the New Black Poetry D.H. Melhem, 2014-10-17

D. H. Melhem's clear introductions and frank interviews provide insight into the contemporary social and political consciousness of six acclaimed poets: Amiri Baraka, Gwendolyn Brooks, Jayne Cortez, Haki R. Madhubuti, Dudley Randall, and Sonia Sanchez. Since the 1960s, the poet hero has characterized a significant segment of Black American poetry. The six poets interviewed here have participated in and shaped the vanguard of this movement. Their poetry reflects the critical alternatives of African American life: separatism and integration, feminism and sexual identity, religion and spirituality, humanism and Marxism, nationalism and internationalism. They unite in their commitment to Black solidarity and advancement.
