Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn

Black White Just Right:

Black, White, Just Right! Marguerite W. Davol, 1993-01-01 This simple story celebrates how the differences between one mother and father blend to make the perfect combination in their daughter As this little family moves through the world the girl notes some of the ways that her parents are different from each other and how she is different from both of them With each difference she lists she highlights the ways that their individual characteristics join together to make her family The fact that her mother is African American and her father is white is just one of the many interesting things that make this little girl and her family just right

Race Experts Elisabeth Lasch-Quinn, 2002-12-17 Controversial and strikingly original Race Experts looks at how we capsized racial progress in the quest for self esteem Now available in paperback it uncovers the hidden trajectory and terms of our thinking about race relations since the 1960s Since segregation s dismantling intense anxiety has surrounded interracial encounters and a movement has arisen to engineer social relations through the specification of elaborate codes of conduct Diversity Training in business multicultural education in schools and cross cultural psychotherapy have created a world of prescriptions Elisabeth Lasch Quinn carefully examines the teachings of these self appointed experts and offers a bold and searching analysis of the origins of their ideas in the human potential movement and the radical milieu of the 1960s Casting race primarily as an issue of etiquette or therapy rather than of justice or equality has had dire consequences for American life diverting attention from the deeper problems of poverty violence and continued inequality and discrimination In this sobering analysis Race Experts illuminates how far away we are from the issues that deserve our attention

Multicultural Issues in Literacy Research and Practice Arlette Ingram Willis, Georgia Earnest Garcia, Rosalinda B. Barrera, Violet J. Harris, 2014-04-04 This volume brings together researchers and participants from diverse groups reflecting the different ways in which the field of multicultural literacies has been interpreted A common theme across the chapters is attention to the ways in which elements of difference race ethnicity gender class and language create dynamic tensions that influence students literacy experiences and achievement The hope of the editors is that readers will build on the experiences and findings presented so that the field of multicultural literacies will have a greater impact of literacy research policy and practice

Why Are All the Black Kids Sitting Together in the Cafeteria? Beverly Tatum, 2003-01-17 The classic bestselling book on the psychology of racism now fully revised and updated Walk into any racially mixed high school and you will see Black White and Latino youth clustered in their own groups Is this self segregation a problem to address or a coping strategy Beverly Daniel Tatum a renowned authority on the psychology of racism argues that straight talk about our racial identities is essential if we are serious about enabling communication across racial and ethnic divides These topics have only become more urgent as the national conversation about race is increasingly acrimonious This fully revised edition is essential reading for anyone seeking to
