William Blake: Poet and Visionary

1

Early Life and Education

Born in London in 1757, Blake displayed artistic talent from a young age. He apprenticed as an engraver and later pursued his own artistic vision.

2

Songs of Innocence and Experience

This collection of poems, published in 1794, established Blake as a major Romantic poet. It explores the contrasting states of innocence and experience in human life.

3

A Visionary Artist

Blake's work transcends traditional boundaries. He combined poetry, painting, and visionary insights to create a unique artistic expression that challenged conventional norms.
