Blast Off To Earth A Look At Geography:

Blast Off to Earth! ,1997 A group of aliens on a field trip visit each of the continents on Earth and learn about some of their unique features The Complete Home Learning Sourcebook Rebecca Rupp,1998 Lists all the resources needed to create a balanced curriculum for homeschooling from preschool to high school level The New World History Ross E. Dunn,Laura J. Mitchell,Kerry Ward,2016-08-23 The New World History is a comprehensive volume of essays selected to enrich world history teaching and scholarship in this rapidly expanding field The forty four articles in this book take stock of the history evolving literature and current trajectories of new world history These essays together with the editors introductions to thematic chapters encourage educators and students to reflect critically on the development of the field and to explore concepts approaches and insights valuable to their own work The selections are organized in ten chapters that survey the history of the movement the seminal ideas of founding thinkers and today s practitioners changing concepts of world historical space and time comparative methods environmental history the big history movement globalization debates over the meaning of Western power and ongoing questions about the intellectual premises and assumptions that have shaped the field The Myth of Continents Martin W. Lewis,Kären Wigen,1997-08-11 In this thoughtful and engaging critique geographer Martin W Lewis and historian K ren Wigen reexamine the basic geographical divisions we take for granted and challenge the unconscious spatial frameworks that govern the way we perceive the world Arguing that notions of East vs West First World vs Third World and even the sevenfold continental system are simplistic and misconceived the authors trace the history of such misconceptions Their up to the minute study reflects both on the global scale and its relation to the specific continents of Europe Asia and Africa actually part of one contiguous landmass The Myth of Continents sheds new light on how our metageographical assumptions grew out of cultural concepts how the first continental divisions developed from classical times how the Urals became the division between the so called continents of Europe and Asia how countries like Pakistan and Afghanistan recently shifted macroregions in the general consciousness This extremely readable and thought provoking analysis also explores the ways that new economic regions the end of the cold war and the proliferation of communication technologies change our understanding of the world It stimulates thinking about the role of large scale spatial constructs as driving forces behind particular worldviews and encourages everyone to take a more thoughtful geographically informed approach to the task of describing and interpreting the human diversity of the planet Explore Our Land : Grade 4 Sarah Bednarz,1997 The Elementary School Library Collection, Phases 1-2-3 ,2000 Explore Indiana ,1997 Geography Boy Scouts of America,1994 Gives an overview of what geography is all about Great New Nonfiction Reads Sharron L. McElmeel,1995-02-15 Selected for their accuracy authenticity and appeal these books span the curriculum in subject matter and will help librarians advise readers making the transition from fiction to nonfiction McElmeel provides thorough guidelines for choosing and using information books to promote literacy and learning through inquiry
