help adolescents coping with death related issues Everything You Need to Know When a Parent Has AIDS Barbara Hermie Draimin,1994 Provides facts about HIV and AIDS and offers advice on dealing with AIDS in a loved one at each step of the disease discussing diagnosis coping with a parent s death and other issues Death, Mourning and Caring Robert L. Marrone,1997 This text while strongly academic comprehensive practical and contemporary offers an exceptionally warm and personalized writing style appropriate to the subject matter It offers both a multi disciplinary approach and a cross cultural perspective Unique Caring Insight feature supplies practical helpful tips for the reader Chapter 12 Resources is a comprehensive guide to organizations periodicals books and Web sites Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with death and bereavement David Walter Adams,Eleanor J. Deveau,1995 Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us Yet today s society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremitant joy and freedom Unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty Unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents Specific to Volume 2 The first part of the second volume of Beyond the Innocence of Childhood focuses on the difficulties and challenges that children and adolescents must face as they try to cope with life threatening illness or attempted suicide Therapeutic techniques are explained and useful intervention strategies are offered to health care providers and other professionals Highlights of this section include The use of art Storytelling Music therapy Therapeutic play Benefits of humor and laughter Pets as a source of empowerment Camps as a therapeutic adjunct Etiology and treatment of suicidal adolescents Suffering imposed by life threatening illness The second part of this volume directly addresses the world of dying children and families whose lives are permanently changed and filled with difficult emotions and formidable challenges A comprehensive review of factors which influence the dying process and useful guidelines for intervention are provided for caregivers other professionals and parents Features of this section include Palliative care Hospital care versus home care Lessons from dying adolescents Therapeutic imagery for pain control Truthtelling Influence of spirituality Developing a children s hospice Storytelling and reading resource HIV/AIDS at Year 2000 Vincent J. Lynch,2000 The author proposes that In order to practice competently all social workers need to have a grounding in HIV issues so they can serve those populations at risk This book provides that grounding Offering cutting edge information about HIV AIDS it shows how the disease affects communities and how social workers work within those communities and with those affected with HIV AIDS It brings together the latest medical psychosocial and values and ethics issues around HIV through vignettes that illustrate the problems and challenges social workers face Dr Lynch and a number of contributors are recognized national leaders in HIV AIDS in social work The book begins by discussing the key medical psychosocial and ethical contexts within which social work with HIV AIDS clients takes place then looks at who in the U S today is most impacted by the disease Taking an ecosystem perspective it examines in particular how the epidemic has ravaged poor communities and communities of color Finally the various roles of the social worker are presented including prevention social advocacy and policy issues treatment mental health issues bereavement and spirituality For social workers related professionals and community leaders working with populations at risk

AIDS and the New Orphans Barbara O. Dane, Carol Levine, 1994-10-30 By the year 2000 as many as 125 000 children under the age of 18 in the U S will have been orphaned by AIDS Social services in major urban centers such as New York Miami Los Angeles and Washington will be further overwhelmed by these new clients and their unique problems In this book experts on AIDS bereavement and children draw together and analyze research and practice models that may be vital to individual and public policy solutions The first chapter sets the stage by examining how Western culture approaches death Issues of spirituality and children are discussed next and the following chapters deal with childhood bereavement among latency age children and adolescents The role of culture and ethnicity are examined in the Latino and Black communities Also the conflicts and problems that new guardians face as they attempt to build new and secure relationships with grieving youngsters are addressed The book ends with an examination of four projects that are reaching children and families and gives recommendations to practitioners This book is an invaluable examination of a problem of growing social concern for social medical and mental health professionals public policy analysts and the general public
