Corrections In Canada Policy And Practice:

Corrections in Canada John W. Ekstedt, Curt T. Griffiths, 2013-10-22 Corrections in Canada Policy and Practice Second Edition examines the Canadian correctional policy and practice The book is comprised of 11 chapters that tackle a specific area of concern The first chapter provides an introductory discourse about the Canadian correctional system The next chapter discusses the history of Canadian Correction Chapter 3 covers the Canadian correctional enterprise and Chapter 4 talks about policymaking in Canadian corrections The book also tackles correctional planning and deals with the structures of management and administration in corrections The correctional treatment programs and the delivery of correctional treatment are also explained The book then covers the community based corrections The last two chapters discuss correctional reform and the future of correction in Canada The book will be of use to individuals interested in the Canadian correctional system as well as to those involved in the development of any correctional systems

Corrections in Canada John Winterdyk, 2001 Aimed at introductory courses dealing with corrections or penology in university criminology and criminal justice programs and in college programs in law enforcement corrections and criminal justice A contributed volume written by individuals who have both academic and practical knowledge of their subject area this text provides a balanced review and analysis of penological works and demonstrates various critical approaches Its currency Canadian content accessibility and learning aids will stimulate discussions and encourage readers to explore issues that are beyond the scope of the text and will facilitate an understanding and appreciation for the complex and dynamic nature of corrections in Canada

Corrections in Canada John Ekstedt, Curt Taylor Griffiths, 1994 Canadian Criminology Forum, 1984 Handbook on Moving Corrections and Sentencing Forward Pamela K. Lattimore, Beth M. Huebner, Faye S. Taxman, 2020-11-10 This volume addresses major issues and research in corrections and sentencing with the goal of using previous research and findings as a platform for recommendations about future research evaluation and policy The last several decades witnessed major policy changes in sentencing and corrections in the United States as well as considerable research to identify the most effective strategies for addressing criminal behavior These efforts included changes in sentencing that eliminated parole and imposed draconian sentences for violent and drug crimes The federal government followed by most states implemented sentencing guidelines that greatly reduced the discretion of the courts to impose sentences The results were a multifold increase in the numbers of individuals in jails and prisons and on community supervision increases that have only recently crested There were also efforts to engage prosecutors and the courts in diversion and oversight including the development of prosecutorial diversion programs as well as a variety of specialty courts Penal reform has included efforts to understand the transitions from prison to the community including federal led efforts focused on reentry programming Community corrections reforms have ranged from increased surveillance through drug testing electronic monitoring and in some cases judicial oversight to rehabilitative efforts driven by risk and needs assessment More recently the focus has included pretrial reform to reduce the number of people held in jail pending trial efforts that have brought attention to the use of bail and its disproportionate impact on people of color and the poor This collection of chapters from leading researchers addresses a wide array of the latest research in the field A unique approach featuring responses to the original essays by active researchers spurs discussion and provides a foundation for developing directions for future research and policymaking
