The Racial Dynamics of Reporting Africa

Omega Douglas, 2025-05-21 This book critically considers how and why centring race in the analysis of journalism deepens our understanding of how race is constructed and experienced in society In doing so it offers a theoretical framework for unpacking and dismantling racism within journalism practice and representation Linking race critical post and decolonial theories to the structural constructivist framework of journalistic field theory this book examines the role of Black journalists and INGOs in reporting on sub Saharan Africa in dominant British news organisations This study goes beyond journalistic representation to consider the racial dynamics informing the production of Western news and the complex relations between journalists of colour and the institutional culture of dominant Western news organisations Through a case study and in depth original interviews the author addresses the racialisation of mainstream UK news production and news representations of Africa and shows how and why mediated racialised discourses occur and recur as well as what to do about them Advancing studies of race representation Black identities and journalism studies The Racial Dynamics of Reporting Africa contributes to decolonising journalism media and communication studies It is recommended reading for students academics and practitioners in these areas

Hester Laurie Lico Albanese, 2022-10-04 Named a Most Anticipated Book for Fall 2022 by Goodreads Washington Post New York Post BuzzFeed PopSugar Business Insider An October 2022 Indie Next List Pick An October 2022 LibraryReads Pick A hauntingly beautiful and imagined origin story to The Scarlet Letter People WHO IS THE REAL HESTER PRYNNE Isobel Gamble is a young seamstress carrying generations of secrets when she sets sail from Scotland in the early 1800s with her husband Edward An apothecary who has fallen under the spell of opium his pile of debts have forced them to flee Glasgow for a fresh start in the New World But only days after they ve arrived in Salem Edward abruptly joins a departing ship as a medic leaving Isobel penniless and alone in a strange country forced to make her way by any means possible When she meets a young Nathaniel Hawthorne the two are instantly drawn to each other he is a man haunted by his ancestors who sent innocent women to the gallows while she is an unusually gifted needleworker troubled by her own strange talents As the weeks pass and Edward s safe return grows increasingly unlikely Nathaniel and Isobel grow closer and closer Together they are a muse and a dark storyteller the enchanter and the enchanted But which is which In this sensuous and hypnotizing tale a young immigrant woman grapples with our country s complicated past and learns that America s ideas of freedom and liberty often fall short of their promise Interwoven with Isobel and Nathaniel s story is a vivid interrogation of who gets to be a real American in the first half of the 19th century a depiction of the early days of the Underground Railroad in New England and atmospheric interstitials that capture the long history of unusual women being accused of witchcraft Meticulously researched yet evocatively imagined Laurie Lico Albanese s Hester is a timeless tale of art ambition and desire that examines the roots of female creative power and the men who try to shut it down
