Gérard, 1986 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S Gérard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory e Black Orpheus Jean-Paul Sartre, 1963 Anticolonial Form Alexandra Reza, 2024 Reza examines key literary journals published in French English and Portuguese by African writers in Europe in the period of decolonization mainly between 1940 and 1970 to understand how writers understood Empire as a political and cultural structure and what conceptions of freedom culture and society underpinned anti colonial thinking Black Dionysus Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2010-03-22 Many playwrights authors poets and historians have used images metaphors and references to and from Greek tragedy myth and epic to describe the African experience in the New World The complex relationship between ancient Greek tragedy and modern African American theatre is primarily rooted in America where the connection between ancient Greece and ancient Africa is explored and debated the most The different ways in which Greek tragedy has been used by playwrights directors and others to represent and define African American history and identity are explored in this work Two models are offered for an Afro Greek connection Black Orpheus in which the Greek connection is metaphorical expressing the African in terms of the European and Black Athena in which ancient Greek culture is reclaimed as part of an Afrocentric tradition African American adaptations of Greek tragedy on the continuum of these two models are then discussed and plays by Peter Sellars Adrienne Kennedy Lee Breuer Rita Dove Jim Magnuson Ernest Ferlita Steve Carter Silas Jones Rhodessa Jones and Derek Walcott are analyzed The concepts of colorblind and nontraditional casting and how such practices can shape the reception and meaning of Greek tragedy in modern American productions are also covered Whither Fanon? David Marriott, 2018-06-05 Frantz Fanon may be most known for his more obviously political writings but in the first instance he was a clinician a black Caribbean psychiatrist who had the improbable task of treating disturbed and traumatized North African patients during the wars of decolonization Investigating and foregrounding the clinical system that Fanon devised in an attempt to intervene against negrophobia and anti blackness this book rereads his clinical and political work together arguing that the two are mutually imbricated For the first time Fanon s therapeutic innovations are considered along with his more overtly political and cultural writings to ask how the crises of war affected his practice informed his politics and shaped his subsequent ideas As David Marriott suggests this combination of the clinical and political involves a psychopolitics that is by definition complex difficult and perpetually challenging He details this psychopolitics from two points of view focusing first on Fanon s sociotherapy its diagnostic methods and concepts and second on Fanon s cultural theory more generally In our present climate of fear and terror over black presence and the violence to which it gives rise Whither Fanon reminds us of Fanon s scandalous actuality and of the continued urgency of his message Encyclopedia of Africa Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2010 The Encyclopedia of Africa presents the most up to date and thorough reference on this region of ever growing importance in world history politics and culture Its core is comprised of the entries focusing on African history and culture from 2005 s acclaimed five volume Africana nearly two thirds of these 1 300 entries have been updated revised and expanded to reflect the most recent scholarship Organized in an A Z format the articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religions ethnic groups organizations and countries throughout Africa There are articles on contemporary nations of sub Saharan Africa ethnic groups from various regions of Africa and European colonial powers Other examples include Congo River Ivory trade Mau Mau rebellion and Pastoralism The Encyclopedia of Africa is sure to become the essential resource in the field Edition Et Le Développement Du Livre en Afrique Hans M.
