Representations of Black Women in the Media Marquita Marie Gammage, 2015-10-16 In 1920 W E B Du Bois cited the damnation of women as linked to the devaluation of motherhood This dilemma he argues had a crushing blow on Black women as they were forced into slavery Black womanhood portrayed as hypersexual by nature became an enduring stereotype which did not coincide with the dignity of mother and wife This portrayal continues to reinforce negative stereotypes of Black women in the media today This book highlights how Black women have been negatively portrayed in the media focusing on the export nature of media and its ability to convey notions of Blackness to the public It argues that media such as rap music videos television dramas reality television shows and newscasts create and affect expectations of Black women Exploring the role that racism misogyny and media play in the representation of Black womanhood it provides a foundation for challenging contemporary media's portrayal of Black women

Embracing Sisterhood Katrina Bell McDonald, 2006-07-27 With this purported new era of high profile mega successful black women who are changing the face of every major field worldwide and growing socioeconomic diversity among black women as the backdrop Embracing Sisterhood seeks to determine where contemporary black women's ideas of black womanhood and sisterhood merge with social class status to shape certain attachments and detachments among them Similarities as well as variations in how black women of different social backgrounds perceive and live black womanhood are interpreted for a range of social contexts This book confirms what many of today's African American women and interested observers have known for some time Conceptions and experience of black womanhood are quite diverse and appear to have grown more diverse over time However the potential for a pervasive and polarizing black step sisterhood is considerably undermined by the passion with which these women cling to the promises of cross class gender ethnic community and of group determination Embracing Sisterhood draws its analysis from in depth interviews with eighty eight contemporary black women aged 18 to 89 covering a variety of issues prompted by a survey questionnaire capturing various dimensions of gender ethnic identity and consciousness
