Novel Competition Evan Brier, 2024-04-16 Novel Competition describes the literary and institutional effort to make the American novel matter after 1965 During this era Hollywood movies popular music and other forms of mass produced culture vied with novels for a specific kind of prestige often figured as importance or relevance that had mostly been attached to novels in previous decades This trans media competition Brier argues is a crucial but largely unacknowledged event in the literary and economic history of the American novel In the face of it the novel lost some of the symbolic specialness it formerly held That loss in turn generated not just a much discussed rhetoric of crisis but also a host of unexamined intertwined effects on both literary form and the business of novel production Drawing on a range of novels and on the archives of publishers editors agents and authors Novel Competition shows how fiction's declining position in a transformed popular prestige economy reshaped the post 1965 American novel as art form cultural institution and commodity

The Black Book Lawrence Durrell, 1982

Black Tracy Brown, 2003 Kaia didn't choose the streets The streets chose her Tossed from a broken home Kaia is forced to learn the hard way just how grimy street life can be Shedding her innocents Kaia overnight it seems goes from being an often overlooked stepped upon and crushed little girl to a woman She endures all of the drama that is thrown her way sometimes catching it and sometimes being knocked flat on her ass To aid in softening the blow is Aaron Even street fairy tales has a Prince Experiencing seclusion and imprisonment while locked down in street dreams and the illusion called love is Aaron a Savior or Satan With enemies in disguise Kaia fights for survival and freedom but to survive the streets could mean suffocating the freedom of her mind Like a captured black butterfly Kaia struggles to emerge and triumph but victory ain't always sweet as a matter of fact sometimes it's bitter to the end

(Inter)racial Relationships as Accompaniment in Twenty-First Century African American Novels E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2024-10-15 This book explores the need to interrogate and subvert the embodied discursive practices of whiteness in the reiteration of norms through the construct of accompaniment both within black spaces and across the color line with a critical awareness that values collective experience of shared vulnerability in everyday life

The Ruse of Repair Patricia Stuelke,2021-08-09

Since the 1990s literary and queer studies scholars have eschewed Marxist and Foucauldian critique and hailed the reparative mode of criticism as a more humane and humble way of approaching literature and culture The reparative turn has traveled far beyond the academy influencing how people imagine justice solidarity and social change In The Ruse of Repair Patricia Stuelke locates the reparative turn s hidden history in the failed struggle against US empire and neoliberal capitalism in the 1970s and 1980s She shows how feminist antiracist and anti imperialist liberation movements visions of connection across difference practices of self care and other reparative modes of artistic and cultural production have unintentionally reinforced forms of neoliberal governance At the same time the US government and military universities and other institutions have appropriated and depoliticized these same techniques to sidestep addressing structural racism and imperialism in more substantive ways In tracing the reparative turn s complicated and fraught genealogy Stuelke questions reparative criticism s efficacy in ways that will prompt critics to reevaluate their own reading practices
