William Curtis,1992 Le Corbusier's Maison Curutchet Alejandro Lapunzina,1997 One of his very few built projects in the Americas Maison Curutchet is a fascinating representation of Le Corbusier s stylistic transitional period bridging his late 1920s purism and the maturity of his later work in India Like Casa Malaparte this book offers an in depth analysis of a single building through original documents drawings and photographs Fractal Architecture James Harris,2012-07-15

Throughout history nature has served as an inspiration for architecture and designers have tried to incorporate the harmonies and patterns of nature into architectural form Alberti Charles Renee Macintosh Frank Lloyd Wright and Le Courbusier are just a few of the well known figures who have taken this approach and written on this theme With the development of fractal geometry the study of intricate and interesting self similar mathematical patterns in the last part of the twentieth century the quest to replicate nature s creative code took a stunning new turn Using computers it is now possible to model and create the organic self similar forms of nature in a way never previously realized In Fractal Architecture architect James Harris presents a definitive lavishly illustrated guide that explains both the how and why of incorporating fractal geometry into architectural design Modern Architecture in Latin America Luis E.

Carranza,Fernando Luiz Lara,2015-01-05 Designed as a survey and focused on key examples and movements arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this is the first comprehensive history of modern architecture in Latin America in any language Runner up University Co op Robert W Hamilton Book Award 2015 Modern Architecture in Latin America Art Technology and Utopia is an introductory text on the issues polemics and works that represent the complex processes of political economic and cultural modernization in the twentieth century The number and types of projects varied greatly from country to country but as a whole the region produced a significant body of architecture that has never before been presented in a single volume in any language Modern Architecture in Latin America is the first comprehensive history of this important production Designed as a survey and focused on key examples paradigms arranged chronologically from 1903 to 2003 this volume covers a myriad of countries historical social and political conditions and projects developments that range from small houses to urban plans to architectural movements The book is structured so that it can be read in a variety of ways as a historically developed narrative of modern architecture in Latin America as a country specific chronology or as a treatment of traditions centered on issues of art technology or utopia This structure allows readers to see the development of multiple and parallel branches historical strands of architecture and at times their interconnections across countries The authors provide a critical evaluation of the movements presented in relationship to their overall goals and architectural transformations

Le Corbusier William J. R. Curtis, 1986 Le Corbusier has been one of the dominant forces in 20th century architecture and many of the forms he created have become archetypes of modernism This book provides a comprehensive survey that puts Le Corbusier's career into a balanced perspective

Drawings from the Le Corbusier Archive Alexander Tzonis, 1986 Athanos, 1999 Architectural Record, 1930 Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians Society of Architectural Historians, 1990 Includes special issues The Ideas of Le Corbusier on Architecture and Urban Planning Le Corbusier, 1981 The writing of Le Corbusier one of the master builders of the twentieth century is made available in this careful selection of his texts His drawings are also reproduced and are supplemented by plans and photographs of buildings he either designed himself or cited in his work from Google Books
